

Saffron Workshop

A Golden Opportunity for North American Growers

At Gardener's Supply, 128 Intervale Road, Burlington, VT

Brought to you by

North American Center for

Saffron Research and Development

& Friends

The University of Vermont, Entomology Research Laboratory

March 9, 2017

Program

8.30 – 9:00 am	Registration, Coffee and Saffron Tea	Cheryl F. Sullivan & Agrin Davari, UVM
9:00 – 9:15 am	Welcomes and Introductions	Margaret Skinner & Richard Galbraith, UVM
9:15 – 9:45 am	Saffron: A Cultural History	Susan Liechty, Herb Society of America
9:45 – 10:45 am	Growing Saffron 101	Hans Rotteveel, Roco Saffron
10:45 – 11:15 am	Coffee Break. Saffron Rice Pudding & Cookies Saffron Tea
11:15 – 12:00 pm	Growing Saffron in Vermont High Tunnels	Arash Ghalehgalab, UVM
12:00 – 12:30 pm	Lunch and Demonstration of Saffron Processing for Cooking	Agrin Davari, UVM & Susan Liechty, Herb Society of America
12:30 – 1:00 pm	Growing Saffron Outside in New England	Peter Johnson, Amish-Mennonite Ctr. For Sustainable Agriculture
1:00 – 2:00 pm	Disease, Insect & Rodent Issues	Arash Ghalehgalab, UVM Hans Rotteveel, Roco Saffron
2:00 – 2:30 pm	The Economics of Saffron?	Round Table Discussion
2:30 – 3:00 pm	What Does the Future Hold?	Bruce L. Parker & Margaret Skinner, UVM
Don't forget to complete the workshop evaluation form.

The University of Vermont