

AAMC Careers in Medicine Resources and Services

Choosing a medical specialty is one of the most significant decisions a medical student will make. The Association of American Medical Colleges (AAMC) has developed an outstanding program, Careers in Medicine, to help with this process. Across all four years of medical school, there are tools to help students identify career goals, explore specialty and practice options and choose a specialty, as well as select and apply to residency programs when the time comes. The Careers in Medicine program is structured to support medical students through a four-step career planning process (AAMC login required):

- Understanding yourself
- Exploring your options
- Choosing a specialty
- Getting into residency

Getting Started:

- Learn more about AAMC Careers in Medicine: Log in to your account (Note: Use your AAMC user name and password, which is the same information you have used for AMCAS, MCAT, and programs that use the AAMC Login).
- Connect with Alumni in your area of interest with the Alumni Directory.
