

Anthropology Internship Agreement Form

Name of student:

Student email address and phone:

Name of UVM anthropology faculty member supervising the internship:

Internship project title:

Internship organization name(s) and contact information:

Description of internship to be undertaken:

Relevance of internship to anthropology:

Activities/duties associated with internship (i.e., hands-on work to be done):

Academic work to be completed for internship (e.g., analytical essays, term paper, etc.):

Mode of evaluation

Course number requested (ANTH 193 or ANTH 293 [Note ANTH 293 will not count toward 200-level requirement]):

Number of credits requested based on the following criteria:

Credits	Hours Worked*	Sample Workload (# of Essays)
1	45	2
2	90	3
3	140	5
4	180	6
5	240	7
6	280	8
7	320	9
8	380	10
9	420	11
10-12	560+ permission	12-14

*You may adjust the number of hours you work per week to the number of weeks you work. However, you are expected to complete the total number of required hours.

 You will customize this through consultation with your supervising faculty member. Work assigned might include directed readings, a research paper, different kinds of writing such as journaling or reports, or any number of other outcomes.

Signatures:

Student _____ Date: _____

Organization Rep _____ Date: _____

Anthro Supervisor _____ Date: _____

Director of Undergraduate Studies or Chair _____ Date: _____