

Ethan Rances

Ethan Rances (he/him) is a senior studying Social Work with minors in Global Studies and Critical Race and Ethnic Studies. He is from Maplewood, New Jersey, and serves as the CESS Student Director for Strategic Initiatives and Student Advisory Board Facilitator. He is also the managing director of the Explain the Asterisk Vermont chapter and will be a full-time BSW Intern at Eden Valley, a private practice partnered with Revolutionary Youth. Ethan enjoys playing with his two dogs Bob and Mabel as well as drawing during his off time. He has been on the board since his second year at UVM and is excited to be given the chance to further improve the CESS community as the new point person for the CESS SABI.

Allie Cohen

Allie Cohen (she/her) is a junior Social Work major from New Providence, New Jersey. She holds multiple positions in her sorority including Diversity and Inclusion Specialist. Allie is a mentor in the UVM DREAM program working with at-promise youth in the local community. In her free time, she enjoys cooking and baking for friends and family. After college, Allie hopes to become a child life specialist, working in a pediatric emergency room.

Jasmine Bombard

Jasmine Bombard is a senior majoring in Social Work and minoring in Human Development and Family Studies. Jasmine hopes to become a psychotherapist someday. She has grown up in South Burlington, Vermont. She enjoys spending time with her family and her boyfriend. She has two adorable dogs at home named Tinkerbelle and Simba. She loves Disney and enjoys going to Disney World! Jasmine is super excited to be part of the CESS Student Advisory Board.

Nicole Fusco

Nicole Fusco is a junior at UVM studying art education and art history. Nicole hopes to one day become a teacher and help others learn the benefits and joy of art. Her favorite mediums are sculpture, collage, fabric arts, and painting. She grew up in a small town in Massachusetts but moved to Vermont recently full time. Nicole loves to read, go to concerts, create all kinds of art, and learn about history (especially medieval!) She is so excited to be a part of SAB and become a further part of the CESS community.

Ty McGovern

Ty McGovern (he/him) is a junior concentrating in Elementary Education. He is from Needham, MA which is in the suburbs outside of Boston. Ty loves that UVM is a place where there are so many extracurricular activities to enjoy. His favorites are playing for the UVM roller hockey team, playing intramural sports, and spending time doing anything outdoors. His favorite time of the year is definitely winter because of pond hockey and all the great skiing Vermont has. Ty hopes to head back to the Boston area after graduation to pursue teaching and could see himself as a guidance counselor or possibly in an administrative role in the future.

Grayson Russo

Grayson Russo is a junior majoring in Early Childhood Education with a minor in Special Education. Grayson is from Long Island, NY. During his early childhood, Grayson lived in Landgrove, VT on a farm. Since Grayson was young he has known that he wanted to go to UVM and major in education. He is so excited to be a part of the CESS SAB!

Hannah Binette

Hannah Binette is a senior with a Human Development and Family Science major, with minors in Health and Society and Behavior Change and Health Studies. She originally is from Cape Cod, Massachusetts and loves to spend her free time down by the water going on walks, spending time with friends. In the winter she likes to find time to ski. She just spent a semester abroad in Stockholm, Sweden and is hoping to continue traveling once she graduates.

Emma Steers

Emma “Em Steers is a senior from Trumbull, CT and an Early Childhood Education major. She hopes to get into UVM’s Early Childhood Education Accelerated Masters Program this coming fall. Em loves to crochet, hang out with friends, and sing when she is outside of class. Em is going to be a co-leader for the Interracial Adoptee Group on campus and hopes to continue to peer mentor for Student Accessibility Service. Em has always been interested in advocating for children whose voices are not heard and in creating spaces for all children to feel supported and safe. She looks forward to learning more about how she can achieve this. Em is excited to be able to contribute her voice to the CESS Student Advisory Board, especially as a person of color.

Emma Von Licht

Emma Von Licht is a senior Elementary Education Major with a Special Education Minor and Place-Based Education Certificate from Pennsylvania. She is also enrolled in the Special Education Accelerate Master's Pathway. Emma will be a full-time student teacher in a fourth-grade classroom at Rick Marcotte Central School this Fall. In her free time, Emma enjoys connecting with others, crafting, and listening to music while having solo dance parties! Emma is extremely motivated to be better and do better for the young people that she has worked/is working/will work with and that starts with her very own CESS Community.

Annie Boudreau

Annie Boudreau (she/her) is a junior who is majoring in middle level education, with a minor in special education and a certification in place based education. She is from Lake Elmore Vermont (which is about an hour North-East from Burlington). In her hometown Annie has a mini farm where she raises goats, rabbits and chickens. When she's not with her animals, Annie loves to read, watch old movies or take walks in the woods. She is super excited to be a part of SAB and hopes to help create positive change and support systems for the CESS community!

Summer Spencer

Summer Spencer is a senior majoring in Elementary Education with a minor in Special Education. She is from Lexington, Massachusetts and loves to run, read, and play sports with her family and friends. She is very excited to be a part of the College of Education and Social Services Student Advisory Board this year!

Veronica Stanford

Veronica Stanford (she/her) is from Selinsgrove, Pennsylvania and is majoring in Elementary Education with a minor in coaching. She is an active member in many clubs including Feel Good, horticulture club, and the club ultimate frisbee team. In her free time, Veronica enjoys watching sports, being outside, reading, and watching Modern Family. Veronica is very excited to join SAB with the hopes of making a positive impact on the CESS and UVM communities.

Ciara Haggerty

Ciara Haggerty (she/her) is a Sophomore majoring in Early Childhood Education. She's currently in the Honors College and minoring in Human Development and Family Science.

She has a passion for policy and special education. Volunteer work, knitting/crochet, and baking are just a few of her hobbies. Ciara is excited to work with everyone and continue the work to build the CESS community!

Devon Moulton

Devon Moulton (he/him) is a Social Work major with a minor in Critical Race and Ethnic Studies. He centers his life around activism and hopes to focus on housing for all and racial justice within his career. Devon transferred last fall and is always looking for new ways to build community and meet like-minded peers. He also loves reading and writing, as well as his has two cats, Atlas and Henry

Caroline Flynn

Caroline Flynn is an Art education major from Medford, New Jersey, and is in her fourth year at UVM. She is currently involved with volunteering with the Red cross, and is a Teaching Assistant for EDSP05. In the future, she hopes to become a college professor or pursue work in substantive law. In her free time she enjoys hiking, snowsports, painting, hanging out with friends, and playing guitar. Caroline is excited to get involved with the CESS student advisory board and work to make positive change in the UVM community.

Claire Sheehy

Claire Sheehy (she/her) is a senior Social Work major with minors in Special Education and Psychology. She hopes to work with many different populations throughout her career and one day become a counselor. When Claire is not focusing on academics, you can find her working at the Howe library circulation desk, relaxing in a hammock with a book, or working on her next crochet project. Claire is from Portland, Maine and has two pets, a cat named Hazel and a dog named Scout. Other fun facts about Claire include her love of cows and the song Sister Golden Hair by America. Claire is extremely thrilled to be joining CESS as a member of the student advisory board. She hopes to become more involved as a member of UVM's student body in order to create a better community for all.