

UNIVERSITY AND UNIVERSITY OFFICERS' MANUAL

Office of the Provost and Senior Vice President
University of Vermont

Approved by the Board of Trustees May 18, 2024

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PREFACE 1

UNIVERSITY IDENTITY 1

 University Name and Status 1

 University Motto 1

 University Seal 1

 University Colors 1

 University Mascot 1

 University Mace 1

 University Registered Marks 1

PART 000 UNIVERSITY MANUAL 2

 010 Description 2

 020 Adoption and Revision 2

 030 Conformance 2

 030.1 Applicable Law 2

 030.2 Rule of Precedence 3

PART 100 UNIVERSITY COMMUNITY 3

 101 Vision, Mission, and Strategic Goals 3

 102 Our Common Ground 3

 103 Academic Freedom 4

 Academic Freedom and Responsibility 4

 The Necessity of Academic Freedom in Higher Education 4

 Academic Freedom and Special Responsibilities of Faculty Members 5

 Responsibility of the Institution to the Faculty 6

 Academic Freedom and Tenure 6

 104 Equal Employment Opportunity and Affirmative Action 6

 105 Equal Opportunity in Educational Programs and Activities 6

 106 Conflict of Interest and Conflict of Commitment Policy 7

PART 200 UNIVERSITY ORGANIZATION, GOVERNANCE, ADVISORY BODIES, AND STRUCTURE 7

 201 Organization 7

 202-206 Governance 7

 202 Board of Trustees 7

 202.1 Authority of the Board of Trustees 7

 202.2 Composition of the Board of Trustees 7

 203 Appointment of University Officers 8

 203.1 President 8

 203.1.1 Appointment and Accountability 8

 203.1.2 Authority and Responsibilities 8

 203.1.3 Search Committee for the President 9

 203.2 Provost 9

 203.2.1 Appointment and Accountability 9

 203.2.2 Authority and Responsibilities 10

 203.2.3 Search Committee for the Provost 10

 204 Senior Administrators and Academic Leaders 10

204.1 Appointment	10
204.2 Evaluation	11
204.3 Appointment Termination.....	11
204.3.1 Resignation	11
204.3.2 Notice of Non-Reappointment.....	11
204.3.3 Termination of Appointment with Notice.....	12
204.3.4 Termination for Cause	12
204.4 Assumption or Resumption of Faculty Appointment	13
205 Faculty Senate.....	14
205.1 Faculty Senate Constitution and Bylaws	14
205.2 Conformance with State Law.....	14
206 University Faculty.....	14
206.1 Faculty Appointments.....	14
206.2 Authority of the Faculty.....	15
206.3 Faculty Research.....	15
206.3.1 Sponsored Research	15
206.3.2 Research Policies and Procedures.....	16
207 Advisory Bodies.....	16
207.1 Student Government Association	16
207.1.1 Description.....	16
207.1.2 Student Government Association Constitution and Bylaws.....	16
207.2 Graduate Student Senate	17
207.2.1 Description.....	17
207.2.2 Graduate Student Senate Constitution and Bylaws	17
207.3 Staff Council.....	17
207.3.1 Description.....	17
207.3.2 Staff Council Constitution and Bylaws.....	17
207.3.3 Consistency with State Law.....	17
208 Academic Unit Structure.....	17
208.1 Establishment, Elimination, or Reorganization of Academic Units.....	17
208.2 Categories of Recognized Academic Units	17
208.3 Colleges, Schools, and Departments.....	18
208.3.1 College	18
208.3.2 School	18
208.3.3 Department.....	18
208.4 Academic Programs.....	18
208.5 Academic Centers and Institutes.....	19
208.6 Vermont Agricultural Experiment Station.....	19
208.6.1 Description.....	19
208.6.2 Director	20
208.7 UVM Extension	20
208.7.1 Description.....	20
208.7.2 Director	20
208.8 Graduate College	20
208.8.1 Description.....	20
208.8.2 Dean	20

208.9	Larner College of Medicine	21
208.9.1	Description	21
208.9.2	Dean	21
208.10	Professional and Continuing Education.....	21
208.10.1	Description	21
208.10.2	Chief Officer	21
208.11	Department of Military Studies	21
208.11.1	Description	21
208.11.2	Professor of Military Studies	22
208.12	University Libraries	22
208.12.1	Description	22
208.12.2	Dean	22
208.13	Robert Hull Fleming Museum	22
208.13.1	Description	22
208.13.2	Director	23
PART 300 ACADEMIC UNIT GOVERNANCE, COMPOSITION, AND
ADMINISTRATION		23
301	Deans.....	23
301.1	Recruitment.....	23
301.2	Appointment	23
301.3	Authority and Responsibilities.....	23
301.4	Performance Review	24
301.4.1	Annual Review.....	24
301.4.2	Third-Year Review	24
301.4.3	Periodic Comprehensive Review	24
301.5	Appointment Termination.....	25
302	College and School Faculties.....	25
302.1	Membership	25
302.2	Self-Governance	25
302.3	Functions of a College or School Faculty.....	26
302.4	Methods of Faculty Work	26
303	Departments in Colleges	27
303.1	Chairpersons	27
303.1.1	Description and Responsibilities.....	27
303.1.2	Recruitment.....	27
303.1.3	Initial Appointment.....	27
303.1.4	Reappointment	27
303.1.5	Responsibilities of the Chairperson	28
303.1.6	Performance Review	29
303.1.7	Appointment Termination.....	30
303.2	Department Governance and Functions.....	32
303.2.1	Self-Governance	32
303.2.2	Functions of a Department.....	32
304	Academic Programs at the College-level, Department-level, in Freestanding
	Schools, and Schools Within Colleges	32
304.1	Academic Program Directors.....	32

304.1.1 Description and Responsibilities.....	32
304.1.2 Recruitment.....	32
304.1.3 Initial Appointment.....	33
304.1.4 Reappointment.....	33
304.1.5 Responsibilities of the Academic Program Director	33
304.1.6 Performance Review.....	34
304.1.7 Appointment Termination.....	34
304.1.8 Faculty Appointment	35
304.2 Academic Program Governance and Functions.....	35
304.2.1 Self-Governance	35
304.2.2 Functions of an Academic Program.....	36
305 Schools Within Colleges.....	36
305.1 School Directors.....	36
305.1.1 Description and Responsibilities.....	36
305.1.2 Recruitment.....	36
305.1.3 Initial Appointment.....	36
305.1.4 Reappointment.....	37
305.1.5 Responsibilities of the School Director	37
305.1.6 Performance Review.....	38
305.1.7 Appointment Termination.....	39
305.2 School Within a College Governance and Functions	41
305.2.1 Self-Governance	41
305.2.2 Functions of a School Within a College	41
306 Colleges and Freestanding Schools	41
306.1 Associate Deans.....	41
306.1.1 Description and Responsibilities.....	41
306.1.2 Recruitment.....	41
306.1.3 Initial Appointment.....	41
306.1.4 Reappointment.....	42
306.1.5 Responsibilities of the Associate Dean.....	42
306.1.6 Performance Review.....	42
306.1.7 Appointment Termination.....	43
307 Office of the Provost.....	45
307.1 Academic Vice Provosts.....	45
307.1.1 Description and Responsibilities.....	45
307.1.2 Recruitment.....	45
307.1.3 Initial Appointment.....	45
307.1.4 Reappointment	45
307.1.5 Responsibilities of the Academic Vice Provost.....	46
307.1.6 Performance Review.....	46
307.1.7 Appointment Termination.....	46
308 University-wide Academic Centers and Institutes.....	46
308.1 Academic Center and Institute Directors	46
308.1.1 Description and Responsibilities.....	46
308.1.2 Recruitment.....	47
308.1.3 Initial Appointment.....	47

308.1.4 Reappointment	47
308.1.5 Responsibilities of the Academic Center or Institute Director	47
308.1.6 Performance Review	48
308.1.7 Appointment Termination.....	49
308.2 Academic Center and Institute Governance and Functions	50
308.2.1 Self-Governance	50
308.2.2 Functions of an Academic Center or Institute	50
APPENDICES	51

PREFACE

UNIVERSITY IDENTITY

University Name and Status

The official name of the institution is The University of Vermont and State Agricultural College. The Latin name, Universitas Viridis Montis, is the source of the popular abbreviation “UVM.” Pursuant to Charter amendments adopted by the state legislature in 1955, the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College (“University”) is a body corporate that shall be “recognized and utilized as an instrumentality of the state for providing public higher education.” The University is also a tax-exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and a nonprofit corporation incorporated and registered to do business in the State of Vermont.

University Motto

The motto of the University, “Studiis et Rebus Honestis,” selected before the University’s first graduation in 1804, comes from the Epistles (I.ii.36) of Horace and may be freely translated as “Integrity in Theoretical and Practical Pursuits.”

University Seal

The University first adopted an official seal in 1807. The seal depicts the sun rising over the Green Mountains with the original “college edifice” (now the remodeled Old Mill) in the upper foreground, and a diagram of the Pythagorean Theorem, a quadrant, and a globe in the lower foreground. The outer ring of the oval includes the motto “Universitas V. Montis. A.D. 1791.” “Collegiumque Agriculturae” in an inner ring notes the establishment of the College of Agriculture in 1865. From 1891 until 1975, the original seal was replaced with a round seal developed to include the College of Agriculture. In 1975, the University Board of Trustees approved a return to the original oval seal, modified to include the College of Agriculture representation within the inner ring of the oval.

University Colors

The colors of the University are green and gold.

University Mascot

The mascot of the University is the Catamount.

University Mace

The mace is the symbol of the authority of the Board of Trustees as vested in the President. It resides in the Office of the President and is carried by the Faculty Senate President, who serves ex officio as the University Marshal, at the head of official academic processions.

University Registered Marks

Registered trademarks identifying the University and its programs, services, and activities are the property of the University, protected under state and federal trademark law. For information regarding marks registered to the University and use of University trademarks, see the University Board of Trustees' Policy Manual and the University Trademarks Policy.

PART 000 UNIVERSITY MANUAL

010 Description

The University and University Officers' Manual ("University Manual") compiles certain policies regarding the governance, structure, and administration of the institution. Additional institutional policies appear on the University policies webpage and in catalog statements; college, school and departmental policies, standards, and guidelines; employee handbooks; collective bargaining agreements applicable to represented faculty, staff and graduate students (upon ratification). Questions regarding interpretation and implementation of the University Manual may be directed to the Office of the Provost and Senior Vice President, 85 South Prospect Street, 304 Waterman Building, Burlington, VT 05405-0160, (802) 656-4400, Provost.Office@uvm.edu.

020 Adoption and Revision

The University Manual shall be maintained by the Office of the Provost and Senior Vice President. Its provisions may be revised by persons or bodies having jurisdiction over such matters under governance requirements in accordance with the governance principles and protocols set forth in the University Charter, the University Bylaws, the resolutions of the Board of Trustees, and the Faculty Senate Constitution and Bylaws. For the sake of clarity, the chart on Attachment 1 reflects the "persons or bodies having jurisdiction" over each section of the University Manual.

The Office of the Provost shall review the University Manual annually to ensure its proper functioning and accurate collection of the policies it aggregates. In addition, the Office of the Provost shall convene a comprehensive review of the University Manual every five years in consultation with the Executive Council of the Faculty Senate to ensure that the University Manual reflects best practices and current university governance principles and protocols.

030 Conformance

030.1 Applicable Law

The University Manual shall be interpreted and applied in a manner consistent with federal and state law including, without limitation, state labor relations law.

030.2 Rule of Precedence

Except as otherwise stated in the University Manual or as required by law, the following descending order of precedence shall apply in the event of conflicts between policies, standards, procedures, or guidelines: University Charter; University Bylaws; Board of Trustees' resolutions; University policies, including the provisions of this Manual and legislation of the Faculty Senate; college or school policies; departmental policies. In addition, University faculty and staff may be subject to the provisions of handbooks or collective bargaining agreements, and the provisions of such agreements shall prevail in the event of a conflict with provisions of the University Manual.

PART 100 UNIVERSITY COMMUNITY

Note: The following University community statements are non-exclusive. See section 010 for a listing of other institutional policy statements.

101 Vision, Mission, and Strategic Goals

The University of Vermont's vision and mission were approved by the Faculty Senate on May 15, 2008, and the Board of Trustees on September 5, 2008.

Vision: To be among the nation's premier research universities with a comprehensive commitment to a liberal arts education, environment, health, and public service.

Mission: To create, evaluate, share, and apply knowledge and to prepare students to be accountable leaders who will bring to their work dedication to the global community, a grasp of complexity, effective problem-solving and communication skills, and an enduring commitment to learning and ethical conduct.

Amplifying Our Impact, President Garimella's strategic vision for the University of Vermont, was approved by the Board of Trustees on May 15, 2020.

102 Our Common Ground

The University of Vermont is an educationally purposeful community seeking to prepare students to live in a diverse and changing world.

We who work, live, study, teach, do research, conduct business, or participate in the University of Vermont are members of this community. As members, we believe in the transforming power of education and agree to help create and foster an environment where we can discover and reach our true potential.

We aspire to be a community that values:

RESPECT. We respect each other. We listen to each other, encourage each other and care about each other. We are strengthened by our diverse perspectives.

INTEGRITY. We value fairness, straightforward conduct, adherence to the facts, and sincerity. We acknowledge when things have not turned out the way we had hoped. As stewards of the University of Vermont, we are honest and ethical in all responsibilities entrusted to us.

INNOVATION. We want to be at the forefront of change and believe that the best way to lead is to learn from our successes and mistakes and continue to grow. We are forward-looking and break new ground in addressing important community and societal needs.

OPENNESS. We encourage the open exchange of information and ideas from all quarters of the community. We believe that through collaboration and participation, each of us has an important role in determining the direction and well-being of our community.

JUSTICE. As a just community, we unite against all forms of injustice, including, but not limited to, racism. We reject bigotry, oppression, degradation, and harassment, and we challenge injustice toward any member of our community.

RESPONSIBILITY. We are personally and collectively responsible for our words and deeds. We stand together to uphold our common ground.

103 Academic Freedom

The Faculty Senate first adopted the University's statement on academic freedom on September 23, 1954, and it was approved by the Board of Trustees on October 16, 1954. The statement was revised and adopted by the Faculty Senate on November 20, 2008, and approved by the Board of Trustees on February 7, 2009. This statement was adopted by the Faculty Senate on May 18, 2023, and approved by the Board of Trustees on May 20, 2023.

Academic Freedom and Responsibility

We, the faculty of The University of Vermont and State Agricultural College, in the spirit and tradition of free universities throughout the world, are agreed upon the following statement of principles on academic freedom and responsibility. We believe that incorporation of these principles into the organization of The University of Vermont and State Agricultural College will re-emphasize the importance of academic freedom to the basic health of the University, and also serve as a statement of policy on the rights and responsibilities of faculty members at this institution. It has been our intent to state these principles in terms broad enough so that they may be valid not only in these critical times when academic freedom and personal liberty are in jeopardy both at home and abroad, but also in the future insofar as the future can be foreseen.

The Necessity of Academic Freedom in Higher Education

The main purpose of a university has always been, must always be, to stimulate the thinking and the creative powers of its students and its faculty. As an institution it deals in ideas, not only old and accepted ones but new ones that may be full of explosive power. If they are explosive, they are bound to be disconcerting, even painful, to some on the campus and to many beyond its borders.

Inevitably they will be called dangerous by the timid and short-sighted, but to those who really believe in the fruitfulness of human thought, the real danger would appear only if the flow of such ideas should cease. For then indeed sterility would have taken over our campus. Our faculty would no longer deserve the name of intellectuals and our students, regardless of degrees attained, could no longer claim to be educated. They would leave our campus accustomed only to the commonplace, satisfied with the mediocre, ignorant or afraid of ideas which catch fire.

Academic freedom is therefore not solely a right or privilege of the faculty but is the fulfillment of the obligation on the part of the university to provide an atmosphere in which intellectual growth may take place.

Academic Freedom and Special Responsibilities of Faculty Members

We subscribe to the 1940 Statement of Principles on Academic Freedom and the 1970 Interpretive Comments of the American Association of University Professors which provides:

- a. Faculty are entitled to full freedom in research and in the publication of the results, subject to the adequate performance of their other academic duties; but research for pecuniary return should be based upon an understanding with the authorities of the university.
- b. Faculty are entitled to freedom in the classroom in discussing their subject, but they should be careful not to introduce into their teaching controversial matter which has no relation to their subject. The intent of this statement is not to discourage what is "controversial." Controversy is at the heart of the free academic inquiry which the entire statement is designed to foster.
- c. Faculty are citizens, members of a learned profession, and officers of the University. When they speak or write as citizens, they should be free from institutional censorship or discipline, but their special position in the community imposes special obligations. As scholars and educational officers, they should remember that the public may judge their profession and their institution by their utterances. Hence, they should at all times be accurate, should exercise appropriate restraint, should show respect for the opinions of others, and should make every effort to indicate that they are not speaking for the University.

We also subscribe to the 2014 report of the American Association of University Professors on Academic Freedom and Electronic Communication which provides:

- a. Academic freedom, free inquiry, and freedom of expression within the academic community may be limited to no greater extent in electronic format than they are in print, save for the most unusual situation where the very nature of the medium itself might warrant unusual restrictions.

In addition, there are recognized qualifications which must be attained and maintained before the privilege of being a member of the academic profession can be considered a permanent one: satisfactory performance as a teacher, scholarship, and high moral standards.

Responsibility of the Institution to the Faculty

The University must defend tenaciously the right of its members to think and express their thoughts freely and to make those choices within the law guaranteed to every citizen. This includes the right of dissent since any democratic institution ceases to merit the name democratic when this fundamental right is denied. Never is this duty more imperative than in those times when the public opinion of the community would restrain or curtail the free play of ideas. The universities, whose roots extend back into the centuries, have a tradition and duty to maintain an independence of judgment in the face of public opinion.

Academic Freedom and Tenure

Tenure is an indispensable pre-condition for academic freedom. It is, in fact, a guarantee that the institution subscribes to the principle of academic freedom, and that its members may not be dismissed without adequate cause. Termination of tenure should occur only in cases of bona fide financial exigency in the University or when it has been demonstrated that the teacher lacks professional or moral fitness or competence as a teacher.

In the interpretation and the application of these principles we shall expect the University authorities to be quick to protect its heritage of academic freedom, in doubtful cases remembering that an excess of freedom is always less dangerous than an excess of constraint.

104 Equal Employment Opportunity and Affirmative Action

The University is committed to equal employment opportunity and to a program of affirmative action in order to fulfill that commitment. The Chief Human Resources Officer is the Responsible Official for ensuring the University honors this commitment and maintains policies and procedures underlying the commitment in a manner consistent with all applicable laws and consistent with best practices. The University's Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Policy is endorsed annually by the University's Board of Trustees. Any amendments to the policy must be approved by the President and the Board of Trustees. The current policy is available here.

105 Equal Opportunity in Educational Programs and Activities

The University is committed to a policy of equal educational opportunity. The Chief Human Resources Officer is the Responsible Official for ensuring the University honors this commitment and maintains policies and procedures underlying the commitment in a manner consistent with all applicable laws and consistent with best practices. The University's Equal Employment Opportunity in Educational Programs and Activities and Non-Harassment Policy is endorsed annually by the University's Board of Trustees. Any amendments to the policy must be approved by the President and the Board of Trustees. The current policy is available here.

106 Conflict of Interest and Conflict of Commitment Policy

University faculty, staff, and administrators (“employees”) are employed by the institution in service to its mission. To this end, employees must avoid ethical, legal, and financial conflicts of interest and conflicts of commitment that may compromise their performance effectiveness in carrying out their University responsibilities.

The President is the Responsible Official for ensuring faculty and covered staff comply with their primary commitments to the University and, with the assistance of the Office of Compliance and Privacy and the Office of the General Counsel, maintains the University's Conflict of Interest and Conflict of Commitment Policy. Any amendments to the policy must be approved by the President. The current policy is available here.

PART 200 UNIVERSITY ORGANIZATION, GOVERNANCE, ADVISORY BODIES, AND STRUCTURE

201 Organization

The current University organizational chart may be found here.

202-206 Governance

202 Board of Trustees

202.1 Authority of the Board of Trustees

Under the 1955 amendments to the Charter of the University, its Board of Trustees is vested with authority over the “entire management and control” of the institution’s “property and affairs, and in all things relating thereto.” Reservations and delegations of Board of Trustees authority appear in the University Bylaws, Board of Trustees’ resolutions, and the Faculty Senate Constitution and Bylaws.

202.2 Composition of the Board of Trustees

The membership of the Board of Trustees is comprised of:

- a. The Governor. The Governor of the State (ex officio).
- b. The President. The President of the University (ex officio).

- c. The UVM Board. Nine Members elected by the Board of Trustees for the institution founded in 1791 (known as The University of Vermont), with three such Trustees elected each biennium in the even years, these nine Trustees also comprising the Board of Trustees of The University of Vermont.
- d. The Agricultural College Board. Nine Members elected by the General Assembly of the State of Vermont, with three such Trustees being elected each biennium in the odd years, these nine Trustees also comprising the Board of Trustees of the Vermont Agricultural College.
- e. The Gubernatorial Appointees. Three Members appointed by the Governor with the consent of the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Vermont, one such Trustee being appointed each biennium in the odd years.
- f. The Student Members. Two Members appointed by the Associated Directors for the Appointment of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College Student Trustees, Inc.

203 Appointment of University Officers

The Board of Trustees has the authority to appoint Officers of the University pursuant to the University Bylaws, including the President, Provost, Treasurer and such other officers as the Board of Trustees may determine.

203.1 President

203.1.1 Appointment and Accountability

The President is appointed by, and accountable to, the Board of Trustees, as further specified in the University Bylaws.

203.1.2 Authority and Responsibilities

The authority and responsibilities of the President are specified in the University Bylaws and generally include:

- a. Establishing and overseeing the accomplishment of the basic academic, operational, and developmental objectives of the institution, including planning processes necessary to formulate and execute such objectives, consistent with the strategic direction set by the Board of Trustees;
- b. Adopting general University policies, subject to the rights vested in the Faculty Senate as stated in its Constitution and Bylaws;
- c. Approving and presenting for approval by the Board of Trustees the University annual budget, including state appropriations requests;

- d. Submitting appropriations requests to the Governor and the Legislature of the State of Vermont, and making such reports on institutional operations as may properly be required or requested by the State;
- e. Representing the University in the community and the State; before the Vermont Congressional delegation; among government officials and agencies; and before other educational institutions, professional organizations, alumni, parents, friends, and donors;
- f. Serving as a formal medium of communication between the Board of Trustees and the University faculty, students, and staff;
- g. Deciding jurisdictional questions arising among bodies or programs within the University;
- h. Except as specifically reserved to the Board of Trustees, the President may delegate authority to a Provost and Senior Vice President and may appoint and delegate authority to Vice Presidents and Chief Officers (“Senior Administrators”) as necessary to efficiently and effectively conduct the administrative and academic affairs of the University; and
- i. The President may award the “emeriti” honorific to the Provost or to Senior Administrators consistent with the terms and conditions of the University policy on emeriti status.

203.1.3 Search Committee for the President

After an incumbent President announces his or her impending resignation or retirement, or when the office is vacated without prior notice, the Board of Trustees shall promptly establish and appoint a presidential search committee advisory to the Board of Trustees. The committee shall consist of trustees, faculty, students, staff, and such other persons as the Board of the Trustees chooses to appoint. There shall be no fewer than two students on the committee, chosen by the Board Chair following consultation with the Provost from a list proposed by the Student Government Association. There shall be no fewer than four faculty members. The procedure for selecting the faculty appointees begins with the election of a panel, on a representative basis, the faculty of each college or school to elect at least one panel member. A college or school with a faculty numbering over 100 shall elect an additional panel member for each hundred faculty members in excess of 100. The panel shall elect those of its members who are to serve on the search committee, and the other panel members will participate in on-campus interviews with candidates. The student and faculty appointees shall be designated in accordance with the timetable the Board Chair establishes. The Board Chair, or his/her designee, will charge the search committee and oversee the recruitment process. The Board of Trustees shall select and appoint a President following consideration of the recommendations of the search committee.

203.2 Provost

203.2.1 Appointment and Accountability

The Provost is initially appointed and thereafter elected annually by the Board of Trustees upon recommendation of the President. The Provost serves under the direction of the President, who will appoint the Provost as the Senior Vice President of the University. The Provost shall be subject to annual performance review conducted by the President and the periodic performance review processes applicable to senior administrative officers.

203.2.2 Authority and Responsibilities

The Provost serves as the Chief Academic Officer of the University. The Provost works with the Deans of the academic units in overseeing the implementation and administration of curricular and research programs and related academic and information support services, including their associated budgets; encouraging faculty in their professional development and in promoting and supporting research; and monitoring and certifying the status of students enrolled in academic programs. The Provost assists in recruiting faculty members and, through customary reappointment, promotion, and tenure processes, in effecting changes in faculty status. With the Faculty Senate, the Provost initiates academic program development, implementation, and changes consistent with institutional mission, strategic plans, and accreditation standards. Through the Dean or Director of the University Libraries, the Provost oversees the policies and operations of the Libraries. Except as specifically reserved to the Board of Trustees and subject to the oversight and approval of the President, the Provost may appoint and delegate authority to Academic Vice Provosts, Administrative Vice Provosts, and Deans (“Academic Leaders”) as necessary to efficiently and effectively conduct the administrative, student, faculty and academic affairs of the University. The Provost may award the “emeriti” honorific to Academic Leaders consistent with the terms and conditions of the University policy on emeriti status.

203.2.3 Search Committee for the Provost

After an incumbent Provost announces his or her impending resignation or retirement, or when the office is vacated without prior notice, the President shall promptly establish a provostial search committee advisory to the President. The committee shall consist of faculty and students nominated in the numbers and manner described in section 203.1.3, and such faculty, students, staff, or other persons as the President chooses to appoint. The student and faculty appointees shall be designated in accordance with the timetable the President establishes. The President, or his/her designee, will charge the search committee and oversee the recruitment process. The Provost shall be appointed by the Board of Trustees upon recommendation of the President and following consideration by the President of the recommendations of the search committee.

204 Senior Administrators and Academic Leaders

Consistent with Sections 203.1.2.h and 203.2.2 of the University Manual, the President may appoint and delegate authority to Senior Administrators (Chief Officers and Vice Presidents) and the Provost & Senior Vice President may appoint and delegate authority to Academic Leaders (Academic Vice Provosts, Administrative Vice Provosts, and Deans).

204.1 Appointment

The President or the Provost & Senior Vice President shall, with respect to each Senior

Administrator or Academic Leader they respectively appoint, set forth in writing the responsibilities of the Senior Administrator and Academic Leader, as well as all material terms and conditions of the appointment, including starting salary and applicable benefits policies and plans and the circumstances under which the appointment may be terminated (for example, at the discretion of the President or Provost & Senior Vice President) at the time of the initial appointment. In cases in which an Academic Leader's appointment or termination thereof is governed by Section 300 of the University Manual, the appointment letter shall make reference to that Section.

The initial appointment letter shall also identify any additional or secondary appointments and any base salary associated with a secondary appointment. A faculty member who serves as a Senior Administrator or Academic Leader shall retain any rank and tenure they have earned at the time of their administrative appointment together with all rights and privileges that attend with their rank and tenure.

Following initial appointment, Senior Administrators and Academic Leaders are subject to annual reappointment consideration.

204.2 Evaluation

The President, the Provost & Senior Vice President, or their respective designees shall conduct an annual performance review of each Senior Administrator or Academic Leader. Senior Administrators and Academic Leaders are also subject to a third-year review, and other periodic comprehensive reviews as described in Section 300 of the University Manual or the University's Policy for the Review and Evaluation of Senior Administrators.

204.3 Appointment Termination

Except as provided in the University Bylaws, Senior Administrator and Academic Leader appointments terminate through resignation, non-reappointment, or termination with notice or for cause. Upon termination of a Senior Administrator or Academic Leader appointment, any accrued but unused vacation up to 270 hours will be paid within thirty days of the last day of service except in cases where the Senior Administrator or Academic Leader assumes a university appointment in which vacation accrues, in which case vacation will be carried over.

204.3.1 Resignation

Resignation must be made in writing to the official to whom the Senior Administrator or Academic Leader reports ("supervisor"). The resignation shall take effect upon a date and terms memorialized in writing and mutually agreed by the Senior Administrator or Academic Leader and the supervisor.

204.3.2 Notice of Non-Reappointment

A Senior Administrator or Academic Leader will be considered for re-appointment annually after the initial appointment. The supervisor may give the Senior Administrator or Academic Leader notice of non-reappointment at any time during an appointment (fiscal) year in progress relative to the following (fiscal) year. The non-reappointment may be based upon job performance or reasonably derived strategic, programmatic, administrative, or budgetary reasons. Notice of non-reappointment shall be given in writing.

204.3.3 Termination of Appointment with Notice

The appointment of a Senior Administrator or Academic Leader may be terminated at any time upon two months' notice. At the discretion of the supervisor, the Senior Administrator or Academic Leader may be relieved of duties during all or part of the notice period.

The supervisor can enlarge the amount of notice, or provide severance pay, only with advance consent of the President, who in turn must confer with the Chair of the Board of Trustees, or the Board of Trustees if the supervisor is the President.

204.3.4 Termination for Cause

A Senior Administrator or Academic Leader may be terminated for serious nonfeasance or malfeasance, including without limitation violations of University policy or law relevant to fitness as a Senior Administrator or Academic Leader, insubordination, falsification of records, or grossly negligent acts or omissions in the performance of duties. Any allegations of serious malfeasance or nonfeasance shall be referred to, or initiated by, the Senior Supervising Officer. For purposes of this provision, the Provost & Senior Vice President shall be the Senior Supervising Officer. If, after consideration of the nature of the charges and any preliminary supporting evidence, the Senior Supervising Officer concludes that the conduct, if proved, would constitute a basis for termination, the procedures below will apply.

- a. Notice of Charges. The Senior Supervising Officer will promptly issue the Senior Administrator or Academic Leader written notice of charges and a summary of the preliminary supporting evidence, and provide the Senior Administrator or Academic Leader with an opportunity to respond within a specified time to the charges in a meeting and in writing. If the Senior Supervising Officer determines that it would be in the best interests of the University for the Senior Administrator or Academic Leader to be placed on paid administrative leave pending the results of an investigation, in the absence of extenuating circumstances the leave will be instituted with written notice to the Senior Administrator or Academic Leader immediately following provision of the opportunity to respond to the charges.
- b. Investigation. The Senior Supervising Officer will promptly commence an investigation responsive in nature and scope to the pending charges. If an investigative procedure otherwise relevant to the charges applies (such as those relating to investigative audits or discrimination complaints), the Senior Supervising Officer will request initiation of such process and await its findings and recommendations. The investigation will be completed within twenty business days except in extenuating circumstances, in which latter case the Senior Supervising Officer will advise the Senior Administrator or Academic Leader in writing of the delay and the revised date for completion of the investigation.
- c. Notice of Decision. After the investigation is complete, the senior supervising officer will in writing convey its results to the Senior Administrator or Academic Leader, who will be given an opportunity to respond to the Senior Supervising Officer in writing within ten business days. The Senior Supervising Officer will issue a final written decision within twenty business days of receipt of the written response to the investigative report or within twenty business days following expiration of the response period if no response is submitted. The Senior Supervising Officer's decision shall include a reiteration of the charges; a ruling on the charges, including a summary of the supporting evidence and statement of rationale for the decision; if the decision is to terminate the appointment, the effective date of termination; and the appeal process, including the filing deadline.

d. Appeal of Decision; Final Decision. The Senior Administrator or Academic Leader may appeal to the President within ten business days following issuance of the senior supervising officer's decision. The appeal is made by the Senior Administrator or Academic Leader filing with the President a notice of appeal and an explanation of the basis for the appeal. If an appeal is filed, the President will issue a final written decision within twenty business days of receipt of the appeal, a copy of which will be sent to the senior supervising officer. If the Senior Administrator or Academic Leader does not appeal within the required time frame, or does not obtain from the President an extension of time within which to appeal for reasonable cause shown, the decision of the senior supervising officer shall be final. Compensation associated with the Senior Administrator or Academic Leader appointment shall end as of the effective date of termination. Termination of the administrative appointment does not affect secondary faculty appointment status unless such status is suspended or terminated under procedures otherwise applicable to faculty appointments.

e. Faculty Appointment. A Senior Administrator or Academic Leader who is terminated for cause and who has a preexisting right to assume or resume a faculty appointment may resume their faculty appointment may do so after the administrative appointment ends notwithstanding a termination for cause of the administrative appointment, unless the faculty status is itself affected under procedures applicable to faculty appointments. This election must be made in writing to the Provost, with a copy to the Dean and Academic Department Chair, within thirty calendar days of notice of termination for cause. Duties associated with the faculty appointment shall resume immediately. A Senior Administrator or Academic Leader who is terminated for cause and is returning to the faculty will not receive a paid administrative leave prior to assuming or resuming their faculty duties, but may be on unpaid leave from the effective date of termination as a Senior Administrator or Academic Leader until the date the faculty position commences.

204.4 Assumption or Resumption of Faculty Appointment

A Senior Administrator or Academic Leader who receives notice of non-reappointment or who resigns the appointment, and who has a preexisting right to assume or resume a faculty appointment may do so after the administrator appointment ends. This election must be made in writing to the President and Provost, with a copy to the Dean and Academic Department Chair where appropriate, within thirty calendar days of issuance of the notice of non-reappointment or submission of a notice of resignation. The faculty salary shall be determined by the Provost in accordance with established procedures and consistent with section 204.1 and/or section 300 of the University Manual. In cases of resignation or non-reappointment, the faculty salary and term will become effective once the administrative appointment ends. In cases of appointment termination, the faculty salary and term will become effective upon the conclusion of the two-month notice period. Duties associated with the faculty appointment shall be assigned by the Department Chair in consultation with the Dean. Faculty duties will begin immediately, unless the Senior Administrator or Academic Leader has been granted a leave of absence to prepare for the assumption of resumption of duties as a faculty member. A recipient of a leave of absence to prepare for the assumption or resumption of duties as a faculty member will be required to return to the University and serve at least one full academic semester following the administrative leave. Failure to fulfill this obligation shall require the full and immediate repayment of salary and benefits received from the University while on administrative leave.

205 Faculty Senate

Subject to the reserved powers of the Board of Trustees and the President, the Faculty Senate is responsible in cooperation with the Provost for the review and establishment of policy with respect to matters specified in the Faculty Senate Constitution and Bylaws. In particular, “[t]he administration and the Faculty Senate of the University of Vermont share responsibility for the effective management of the academic affairs of the University. Authority in matters related to the academic mission of the University is vested in the Faculty by the Board of Trustees. This authority is exercised in the Faculty Senate by elected senators with voting privileges and by committees authorized to act on their behalf.” Faculty Senate Constitution and Bylaws, Preamble. In addition, the Faculty Senate advises on those matters specified in the Faculty Senate Constitution and Bylaws.

205.1 Faculty Senate Constitution and Bylaws

Faculty Senate authority, responsibilities, and self-governance protocols shall be memorialized in a Constitution and Bylaws approved pursuant to Faculty Senate governance requirements and applied by the Faculty Senate in a manner consistent with its delegated powers. The Board of Trustees approves changes to governance group constitutions and bylaws.

205.2 Conformance with State Law

The authority of the Faculty Senate shall be exercised in a manner consistent with governing law and the rights and obligations of the University as well as the rights and obligations of faculty represented by labor organizations certified under state labor relations law.

206 University Faculty

206.1 Faculty Appointments

The University faculty consists of persons holding such titles and rank as the University may establish through customary processes in the Colleges, Schools, and other academic units of the University, and includes the President of the University, the Provost, and Deans. Faculty appointments shall be initially made by the Provost upon recommendation of the Dean of the College or School, following the initial recommendation by the unit supervisor to the Dean. All faculty must have a primary appointment in a Department or in an Academic Program as defined in section 208.4 or in Libraries or Extension. Matters affecting faculty appointments and conditions of employment, including without limitation salary and benefits, reappointments, leaves, promotion, tenure, appointment terminations, reinstatements, retirement, and other changes in status, shall be set forth in and governed by the documents applicable to their appointment status, as referenced in this University Manual and as may appear in the Appendices to this Manual.

206.2 Authority of the Faculty

Under the authority of the Board of Trustees, the University faculty is empowered to establish policy with respect to academic freedom; curriculum; general admission standards and prerequisites; requirements for certificates and degrees; regulations regarding attendance, examinations, grading, scholastic standing, honors, and the academic calendar; teaching quality; criteria for positions accorded academic rank; and other matters referred to it by the Board of Trustees, the President, or the faculty of a College, School, or Department. It is also charged with participating in the formulation of policy with regard to a broad range of other University activities. The areas and methods of faculty participation, and the composition and functions of faculty committees, are set forth in the Faculty Senate Constitution and Bylaws.

206.3 Faculty Research

University policies on research and related activities are based on the philosophy that the University's fundamental objectives are the dissemination, preservation, and advancement of knowledge through its educational and research programs. The University also recognizes its responsibility to serve community (local, state, national, international) interests as it fulfills its basic educational objectives of undergraduate, graduate, and professional teaching, advanced research, and public service – the traditional aims of a land-grant institution. Research and creative scholarship are essential elements of an effective educational program and enable faculty members to keep abreast of the rapid advances in knowledge, to satisfy their intellectual curiosity, and to improve their professional status. Students are stimulated in their academic work and develop a spirit of inquiry and a familiarity with research techniques and objectives. Insofar as possible, teaching and research should be considered deeply intertwined elements of university education not as separate and discrete activities.

206.3.1 Sponsored Research

The University shall maintain an office of research administration designed to assist faculty in their pursuit of funding for research and scholarly activity while ensuring compliance with federal, state, and private sponsor requirements. In negotiating for research funds, the University will establish and maintain policies that will preserve the academic freedom and financial integrity of the institution. Policies with respect to sponsored projects and programs are based on the following principles:

- a. Sponsored projects and programs supporting research, training, and related activities must be consistent with the immediate and long-term objectives of the University as an institution of higher education;
- b. The source of sponsorship and the purpose of all projects must be of such a nature that they can be publicly disclosed;

c. Restrictions on the free publication of results are contrary to one of the basic objectives of a university, namely the dissemination of knowledge. Accordingly, the University, with the principal investigator and his/her department and college or school, will seek to minimize any restrictions on public and scholarly communication imposed by those research agreements that are accepted;

d. Research involving proprietary or classified data/results (e.g., federally sponsored research of national interest, corporate research of proprietary interest) may be undertaken when the topics involved represent important national interests (in the case of classified research) or corporate partnerships (in the case of proprietary research) that are beneficial to the University, its mission and the public it serves. In these cases there may be appropriate conditions on the publication of results, but the research shall continue to observe University research protections, oversight, and compliance policies/procedures; and

e. All research must be conducted in a manner consistent with applicable University and federal requirements, including without limitation those applicable to human subjects, animal welfare, laboratory safety, conflict of interest, effort reporting, and cost accounting principles.

206.3.2 Research Policies and Procedures

In their conduct of research, faculty are subject to applicable federal and state law and institutional policies, including without limitation those governing intellectual property, research misconduct, and conflict of interest.

207 Advisory Bodies

207.1 Student Government Association

207.1.1 Description

The Student Government Association serves as the official channel of communication between the student body and the University regarding policies governing, and operations affecting, student life, in a manner consistent with the rights and responsibilities set forth in its charge and conditions of institutional recognition.

207.1.2 Student Government Association Constitution and Bylaws

Student Government Association authority, responsibilities and internal governance protocols shall be memorialized in a Constitution and Bylaws approved pursuant to Student Government Association governance requirements and applied by the Student Government Association in a manner consistent with its charge and conditions of institutional recognition. The Board of Trustees approves changes to advisory body constitutions and bylaws.

207.2 Graduate Student Senate

207.2.1 Description

The Graduate Student Senate serves as the official channel of communication between the graduate student body and the University regarding policies governing, and operations affecting graduate student life, in a manner consistent with the rights and responsibilities set forth in its charge and conditions of institutional recognition.

207.2.2 Graduate Student Senate Constitution and Bylaws

Graduate Student Senate authority, responsibilities and internal governance protocols shall be memorialized in a Constitution and Bylaws approved pursuant to Graduate Student Senate governance requirements and applied by the Graduate Student Senate in a manner consistent with its charge and conditions of institutional recognition. The Board of Trustees approves changes to advisory body constitutions and bylaws.

207.3 Staff Council

207.3.1 Description

The Staff Council is comprised of non-faculty employee representatives who advise the administration on policies governing, and operations affecting, staff, in a manner consistent with the rights and responsibilities set forth in its charge and conditions of institutional recognition.

207.3.2 Staff Council Constitution and Bylaws

Staff Council authority, responsibilities, and internal governance protocols shall be memorialized in a Constitution and Bylaws approved pursuant to Staff Council governance requirements and applied by the Staff Council in a manner consistent with its charge and conditions of institutional recognition. The Board of Trustees approves changes to advisory body constitutions and bylaws.

207.3.3 Consistency with State Law

The authority of the Staff Council shall be exercised in a manner consistent with governing law and the rights and obligations of the University and staff represented by labor organizations certified under state labor relations law.

208 Academic Unit Structure

208.1 Establishment, Elimination, or Reorganization of Academic Units

The establishment, elimination, or reorganization of academic units and degrees must be approved by the Board of Trustees, upon recommendation of the President and following appropriate governance protocols.

208.2 Categories of Recognized Academic Units

To carry out the teaching, research, and service mission of the University, the recognized categories of academic units are College, School, Department, Academic Program, university-wide Center, university-wide Institute, Libraries, and Extension. These recognized academic units may organize other academic activity within their units, but this other activity is not formally recognized for governance or other purposes unless explicitly stated as such in this Manual.

208.3 Colleges, Schools, and Departments

208.3.1 College

A College is an academic unit with a defined and congruent mission in instruction, research and scholarship, and service. With the exception of the Patrick Leahy Honors College, a College presents degree candidates to the Faculty Senate, which recommends those candidates for the award of appropriate degrees by the Board of Trustees. A College is led by a Dean and comprises combinations of Schools, Departments, and/or Academic Programs defined by disciplinary and interdisciplinary areas that contribute to the mission of the College. Colleges may also include additional units such as Centers, Institutes and Extension.

208.3.2 School

A School is an academic unit with a defined and congruent mission in instruction, research and scholarship, and service, the mission being narrower in scope than that of a College. A School may be organized into Academic Programs and other units such as Centers and Institutes. Schools may be freestanding or established within a College. A freestanding School is led by a Dean and presents degree candidates to the Faculty Senate, which recommends those candidates for the award of appropriate degrees by the Board of Trustees. A School established within a College is led by a School Director who reports to the Dean.

208.3.3 Department

A Department is a unit of instruction, research and scholarly activity, and service, established within a College. Schools may not establish departments. A Department is led by a Chair. Its faculty, instructional offerings, and research are recognized as belonging to a discrete academic discipline or related disciplines or as providing a unique supporting role to other academic units. In establishing a Department, due consideration will be given to identifying the fiscal resources and appropriate number of faculty members compatible with its instructional, research, and scholarly objectives and responsibilities.

208.4 Academic Programs

For the purpose of this manual defining University organization, structure, and governance, there are two kinds of Academic Programs at the University of Vermont: Academic Programs within Departments or Schools, and Academic Programs outside of a Department reporting directly to the Dean of a College. Primary faculty appointments are granted only in Academic Programs within a Department or School. The term “program” as it is used here does not refer to a curriculum, major, concentration, or other academic credential.

An Academic Program is an approved academic unit, similar to a Department, established within a College or School or as a singular academic and instructional unit. Its faculty, instructional offerings, and research are recognized as belonging to a discrete academic discipline or area of interdisciplinary study, or as providing a unique supporting role to other academic units. An Academic Program within a Department or School within a College is led by a Program Director reporting to a Department Chair or School Director. An Academic Program outside of a Department or School within a College is led by a Program Director reporting directly to the Dean.

208.5 Academic Centers and Institutes

Centers and Institutes facilitate the performance of interdisciplinary or focused research, or other scholarly or creative activities not otherwise conducted within the structure of Academic Programs, Departments, Schools, or Colleges. Centers and Institutes that involve any or all of the following are considered academic Centers and Institutes: curriculum or instruction, research, scholarship or creative arts. Academic Centers bridge the research of a single Department or across Departments within a single College or School. Academic Institutes involve faculty from units across several Schools or Colleges. Exceptions to these definitions and the use of the term “center” or “institute”, where established historically or required by the funder, are acceptable. Proposals to establish, substantially change or eliminate university-wide academic Centers and Institutes must be approved by the Board of Trustees, upon recommendation of the President and Provost following application of appropriate governance protocols, including Faculty Senate review of new Institutes and Centers, and periodic performance and mission review. Proposals to establish, substantially change, or eliminate College/School-level academic Centers (or Institutes in exceptional cases) must be approved by the Dean and the Provost following application of appropriate governance protocols within the College/School. College/School-level Centers are subject to periodic performance and renewal reviews as determined by the Dean at intervals of no greater than five years. The scope of academic Centers and Institutes can vary from a sharply defined focus within a School or College to an interdisciplinary subject or specialized field of study spanning two or more Colleges/Schools. Academic Centers and Institutes do not grant degrees or appoint faculty, nor do they offer credit-bearing courses except in cooperation with the academic unit(s) that constitute their participants, or where those courses are offered through professional and continuing education units at the University in partnership with an academic unit.

In general, a university-wide or cross-college Center or Institute will be hosted by the Office of the Provost or the Office of the Vice President for Research. In these cases, the Director will be appointed by and report to the Provost or the Vice President for Research. Academic Centers or Institutes that are housed within a single College or School will typically have a Director who is appointed by and reports to the Dean or other designated college administrator.

208.6 Vermont Agricultural Experiment Station

208.6.1 Description

The Vermont Agricultural Experiment Station was established in 1886 as a state and federal partnership to serve the agricultural needs of the state through research. Vermont Agricultural Experiment Station research is now funded by both public and private sources.

208.6.2 Director

The Vermont Agricultural Experiment Station operates under the direction of its Director who, in consultation with researchers and their staff and advisors and citizen stakeholders, develops and oversees research and programs. The Director reports to the Dean of the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences.

208.7 UVM Extension

208.7.1 Description

UVM Extension was established in 1913 as a state initiative, and in 1914 as a state and federal partnership to provide Vermonters timely, science-based education and information through non-credit courses, workshops, conferences and non-credit certificate programs in reaching specific educational goals. Programs are offered throughout the state, covering a wide array of subjects including agricultural business profitability, forest and farm stewardship, economic development, nutrition and food safety, and life skills for youth. UVM Extension does not offer undergraduate or graduate degree programs, majors, minors, or for-credit certificates, nor does it offer credit-bearing courses except in cooperation with an academic unit(s), but does appoint faculty. Extension is located within the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences.

208.7.2 Director

UVM Extension operates under the direction of its Director, in consultation with its faculty, staff, volunteers, and community advisors, to develop and conduct educational programs and to provide information to the citizens of the state. The Director is subject to University Manual policies and procedures otherwise applicable to the recruitment, appointment, evaluation, and review of Deans. The Director reports to the Dean of the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences.

208.8 Graduate College

208.8.1 Description

The Graduate College has responsibility for all matters relating to the academic standards of graduate programs and the admission, support, and degree certification of graduate students, with the exception of the Degree of Doctor of Medicine. The Graduate College offers credit-bearing graduate instruction and graduate certificate and degree programs in cooperation with Colleges/Schools and as the host unit for cross-college graduate degree programs and certificates. The Graduate College presents candidates to the Faculty Senate, which recommends those candidates for the awarding of degrees by the Board of Trustees.

208.8.2 Dean

The Dean of the Graduate College, with the advice of the Graduate College faculty and its committees, is responsible for formulating and implementing standards, policies, and procedures governing graduate programs. These responsibilities are carried out under the direction of the Provost and in consultation with the Deans and Chairpersons of the academic units that offer graduate instruction or graduate degree programs. The Dean is subject to University Manual policies and procedures otherwise applicable to the recruitment, appointment, evaluation, and review of Deans.

208.9 Larner College of Medicine

208.9.1 Description

The Larner College of Medicine has responsibility for matters relating to the academic and clinical standards of the College program and the admission, support, and degree certification of its enrolled students. The Larner College of Medicine offers medical, graduate, and undergraduate credit-bearing instruction as well as undergraduate minors and for-credit certificates, and graduate programs and for-credit certificates in addition to the medical doctor program. The College presents degree candidates to the Faculty Senate, which recommends candidates for the awarding of degrees by the Board of Trustees.

208.9.2 Dean

Advised by College faculty committees, the Dean is responsible to the Provost for formulating and implementing standards, policies, and procedures governing the academic and clinical programs and matters relating to student enrollment and status. The Dean is subject to University Manual policies and procedures otherwise applicable to the recruitment, appointment, evaluation, and review of Deans.

208.10 Professional and Continuing Education

208.10.1 Description

Professional and Continuing Education has responsibility for the coordination and administration of non-credit courses and certificates. and for credit-bearing courses, certificates, and degree programs in consultation and cooperation with the Deans of academic units. Professional and Continuing Education is responsible for the coordination and administration of Summer Session and for the enrollment, support, and program development for non-degree students.

208.10.2 Chief Officer

The Chief Professional and Continuing Education Officer reports to the President and is subject to University Manual policies and procedures otherwise applicable to the recruitment, appointment, evaluation, and review of other Chief Officers described in Section 204 of the Manual.

208.11 Department of Military Studies

208.11.1 Description

The Department of Military Studies is responsible for offering the credit-bearing institutional curriculum in military studies. It may offer other military studies-related degree programs or credentials only in cooperation with a College/School.

208.11.2 Professor of Military Studies

The Professor of Military Studies is assigned to the University by the Department of the Army, subject to the approval of the President in consultation with the Provost. The Professor of Military Studies is responsible to both the Department of the Army and to the Provost for the efficient administration of the Department. The Provost shall conduct an annual performance evaluation of the Professor of Military Studies. The Provost will meet with the Professor of Military Studies to discuss the results of the performance review and to convey a salary adjustment for the upcoming fiscal year. The Professor of Military Studies is subject to non-reappointment by the Provost, following the Provost's consultation with the President, and in accordance with any applicable requirements and protocols of the Department of the Army.

208.12 University Libraries208.12.1 Description

The mission of the University of Vermont Libraries is to further the creation, application, and dissemination of knowledge by providing access to information resources and education in their use. As Vermont's and northern New England's premier research library, the University Libraries acquire materials and build collections essential for the University's research programs. The Libraries preserve and disseminate the historical record, edit and publish new work, and partner with faculty to teach research skills, and collaborate with communities across the state and around the globe in providing access to information. The Libraries also support research through specialized consulting on matters related to statistical design, geographical information systems, data management and archiving, data visualization, systematic reviews, copyright determinations and scholarly communications. The Libraries do not offer credit-bearing instruction or offer degree programs or credentials.

208.12.2 Dean

The Dean, with the advice of the Libraries faculty and staff, is responsible to the Provost for formulating and implementing standards, policies, and procedures governing the Libraries and information resources. The Dean is subject to University Manual policies and procedures otherwise applicable to the recruitment, appointment, evaluation, and review of Deans.

208.13 Robert Hull Fleming Museum208.13.1 Description

Established in 1931, the Robert Hull Fleming Museum of Art is home to the University of Vermont's diverse collection of more than 24,000 objects including art, historical, and ethnographic objects spanning over 5,000 years of human creativity and cultures. The Fleming offers a gateway for active cultural exchange and critical thinking across academic and public communities alike. The Fleming Museum supports the University curriculum and coursework in a wide range of disciplines in cooperation with academic units and departments, but does not offer credit-bearing instruction or degree programs or credentials. The Fleming funded by the University General Fund as well as public and private sources. Accredited by the American Alliance of Museums (AAM), the Fleming Museum complies with nationally recognized standards and guidelines pertaining to collections management, exhibitions planning, diversity, equity and inclusion work, fiscal responsibility, and all other areas of museum operations.

208.13.2 Director

The Director of the Robert Hull Fleming Museum reports to the Director of the School of the Arts within the College of Arts and Sciences. The Director is subject to applicable staff reappointment and evaluation guidelines.

PART 300 ACADEMIC UNIT GOVERNANCE, COMPOSITION, AND ADMINISTRATION*301 Deans*301.1 Recruitment

The President, in consultation with the Provost, shall appoint a search committee advisory to the President in conjunction with initiation of a decanal recruitment process. The search committee will include no fewer than four faculty members of the College or School faculty for which a dean is being recruited; the Dean of another College or School or his/her designee; as desirable, a faculty member from another College or School whose academic programs interrelate with those of the College or School for which the Dean is being recruited; two students enrolled in a degree program offered by the College or School; a staff member from the College or School; and such other persons as the President chooses to appoint. The representatives will be identified under the timetable the President establishes.

301.2 Appointment

Deans are initially appointed by the President upon recommendation of the Provost and consideration by the Provost and President of the recommendation of the search committee. At the time of the Dean's initial appointment, consistent with Section 204.1 of the University Manual, the President shall set forth in writing all material terms and conditions of the appointment, including starting salary as dean and the base salary of the secondary faculty appointment, benefits programs, and the applicability of the University Manual. A Dean initially appointed without faculty rank or tenure may request consideration for that status in an appropriate academic unit, which will be processed under customary standards and procedures. Following initial appointment, a dean is subject to annual reappointment consideration.

301.3 Authority and Responsibilities

The Deans of the undergraduate Colleges and Schools, the Patrick Leahy Honors College, the Graduate College, Libraries and the Larner College of Medicine are each responsible to the Provost for the effective leadership and administration of the unit under their supervision. A Dean, in consultation and cooperation with the College and School faculty curriculum and standards (or equivalent) committees, directs and coordinates the establishment and oversight of academic standards and educational objectives and the curricula to attain them. The Dean gives attention to the programs of study and research, their purposes and content, the effectiveness of instruction, the admission and counseling of students, the recruitment and supervision of the faculty of the College or School, and the development and maintenance of resources and support services for the carrying out of the mission of the College or School. The Dean determines overall organizational structure to ensure the most efficient and effective implementation of the College's or School's vision and mission in consultation with the Provost and following the application of appropriate governance protocols in the College/School and Faculty Senate. The Dean also directs curricular advising of students and their enrollment, supervises their academic status and standing, and certifies degree candidates to the Senate. The Dean presides over faculty meetings of the College or School in accordance with applicable College or School bylaws. In consultation with Department Chairpersons, Academic Program Directors, School Directors and/or Associate Deans, the Dean makes recommendations to the Provost for faculty appointments and/or changes in faculty status. The Dean prepares a budget for the College or School for approval by the Provost and administers the budget following its approval. The Dean is responsible for the mentoring and oversight of School Directors, Associate Deans, Assistant Deans, Department Chairs, and Academic Program Directors. The Dean is responsible for fostering a climate that values diversity and inclusiveness and for promoting the multicultural competence of its faculty, staff, and students.

301.4 Performance Review

301.4.1 Annual Review

The Provost shall conduct an annual performance review of each Dean. The Provost will meet with each Dean individually to discuss the results of the performance review, and to convey a reappointment decision and the salary upon reappointment following consultation with the President.

301.4.2 Third-Year Review

The Provost shall conduct a review of a Dean's performance during the spring semester of the initial third year of appointment. The primary objective of the evaluation is to facilitate continued improvement of the academic leadership and management of the College or School. For Schools and Colleges with academic departments, input will be sought from every Department Chairperson and, separately, from the faculty and staff. For Schools and Colleges without Departments, the faculty and staff shall be given an opportunity to provide input into the third-year performance review. Such input will be based upon the Dean's performance of the responsibilities set forth in section 301.3 and as otherwise defined by the University through proper channels. The Office of the Provost will distribute and administer standardized evaluation forms in electronic format, so that confidentiality may be assured. The standardized form shall have the following characteristics: 1) the form will use a combination of descriptive criteria upon which the Dean shall be ranked and opportunities for narrative comments to justify the ranks assigned; 2) respondents may reveal their identity but are not required to do so; and 3) the identities of the participants will not be revealed to the Dean under review. The Provost shall prepare a written report on the Dean's performance, which shall include a summary of the Chairpersons' evaluations (when applicable) as well as faculty and staff evaluations. The Provost shall share this written report with the Dean, who shall have the right to submit a written response. The Provost will maintain a record of the performance appraisals, the individual evaluation forms, and any responses from the Dean.

301.4.3 Periodic Comprehensive Review

A Dean shall undergo a comprehensive performance review at intervals of no longer than five years. The primary objective of the review is to provide advice to the Provost as he/she determines, in consultation with the President, whether the Dean will be reappointed following the appointment year in progress. Such a review may be commenced at an earlier point by the Provost at his/her own initiation, or upon request of the President, the Dean, a majority of the Chairpersons of the academic unit, or one-third of the faculty of the academic unit eligible to vote under the bylaws of the College or School.

The Provost shall appoint a committee of nine faculty members to review the Dean, such appointments to be made during the spring semester of the review year. Three faculty members will be elected representatives from the academic unit, three will be appointed by the Faculty Senate Executive Council, and three will be appointed by the Provost, including the committee chairperson, who must come from outside the academic unit. The review committee shall conduct its work in an expeditious manner. It will begin its work with a thorough review of the third-year evaluation documents. The committee shall consult with Chairpersons (if there is a departmental structure), faculty, staff, and students from the academic unit, and others deemed appropriate from within or outside the University. The committee shall submit a written report to the Provost no later than May 1 of the academic year in which the review commences. The Provost shall present the full report of the review committee to the Dean, with a copy to the President, and shall distribute an accurate summary of the findings of the report to every faculty and staff member of the academic unit.

301.5 Appointment Termination

Decanal appointments terminate through resignation, non-reappointment, or termination with notice or for cause as governed by Section 204.3 of the University Manual.

302 College and School Faculties

302.1 Membership

The membership of the faculty of each undergraduate College, School or Academic Program, Libraries, and the Larner College of Medicine consists of the President; the Provost; the Dean of the College or School; and all persons who hold faculty appointments within an academic unit of the College or School. Regulations concerning additional memberships and voting privileges are established by the individual faculties in College or School bylaws. The faculty of the Graduate College consists of the President, the Provost, the Dean of the Graduate College, and all persons who are appointed via the processes established by the Graduate College and its faculty.

302.2 Self-Governance

College, School, Libraries, or Extension bylaws shall be adopted by the respective faculties, subject to the approval of the Dean and the Provost. Bylaws shall be reviewed every five years by respective faculties, the Dean, and the Provost. Bylaws that undergo changes at the Department, College or School level will be submitted for approval to the Office of the Provost by January 1 of the following year. The most recently approved bylaws will remain in force until new bylaws are approved according to the process outlined above. The bylaws must be consistent with the policies and guidelines of the University and the Faculty Senate, and standards established for admission, graduation, and other matters for academic judgment may not be lower or less specific than those adopted by the Faculty Senate.

302.3 Functions of a College or School Faculty

The principal functions of a College or School faculty are:

- a. To define the objectives of its educational program within the general program of the University and to foster effective coordination of effort;
- b. To develop courses, curricula, and research programs consistent with those objectives;
- c. As appropriate to their individual faculty appointments, to provide student instruction, and to undertake research and scholarship;
- d. To advise the Dean, through the Chair or a Dean's designee, on matters of faculty appointment, reappointment, promotion, and tenure;
- e. To establish requirements for admission to its programs;
- f. To set and administer specific requirements for student participation in its programs;
- g. To monitor the progress of students;
- h. To assist students with professional and educational planning and placement;
- i. To certify the eligibility of degree candidates for the award of degrees; and
- j. To maintain adequate records and reports for students, program accreditation, and academic program assessment and review.

302.4 Methods of Faculty Work

Colleges, freestanding Schools, and Libraries may determine their own methods for the performance of their functions and operations, including the delegation of their work to committees or individuals. Colleges, freestanding Schools and Libraries shall establish and maintain appropriate committees to advise their Dean on matters of curriculum and standards governing changes in faculty status. All provisions relative to methods of faculty work shall be consistent with any applicable provisions of the College's, freestanding School's, or Libraries' Faculty Handbook or collective bargaining agreements.

303 Departments in Colleges

303.1 Chairpersons

303.1.1 Description and Responsibilities

The Chairperson (or “Chair”) is the administrator responsible for management and coordination of the work of a Department, as more specifically set forth in section 303.1.5.

303.1.2 Recruitment

Upon authorization of the Provost, the Dean shall commence an internal or external recruitment for a new Chairperson assisted and advised by a search committee appointed by the Dean in consultation with the Provost. The search committee will ordinarily include no fewer than three members of the Department, two of whom will be elected by the Department faculty. The committee may also include the Chair or equivalent from another Department or equivalent within the College or School for which the Chair is being recruited; and, as desirable, a faculty member from another College or School whose academic programs interrelate with those of the Department for which the Chair is being recruited. A majority of the search committee members shall hold appointments in the Department or equivalent for which the Chair is being recruited. The search committee shall invite all members of the Department to meet candidates and to express their recommendations through the search committee to the Dean. Subject to the approval of the Provost, and following consideration by the Dean and the Provost of the recommendations of the search committee, the Chair is appointed by the Dean of the College or School.

303.1.3 Initial Appointment

Initial Chair appointments are for a period of one year and are subject to annual reappointment on a schedule commensurate with the University fiscal year. The salary upon initial appointment of a Chairperson, including the base salary associated with the faculty appointment, shall be set by the Provost following recommendation of the Dean and may, in the case of a faculty member assuming the appointment, include a salary increment for the assumption of Chair duties. The Dean shall inform the Chair in writing at the time of initial appointment and any subsequent reappointments of the amount of any increment, such as an administrative stipend, associated with the Chair duties and the basis for re-calculation of salary when the Chair resumes or assumes a faculty appointment. All Chair appointments shall be made expressly subject to applicable benefits policies and plans and to the provisions of the University Manual.

303.1.4 Reappointment

Following the initial term of appointment, Chairpersons are subject to annual reappointment consideration. Decisions as to reappointment and non-reappointment shall be made by the appropriate Dean prior to expiration of the appointment term in progress, subject to the prior approval of the Provost. A non-reappointment decision shall be based upon performance or reasonably derived strategic, programmatic, administrative, or financial reasons. The Dean shall give the Chairperson notice of non-reappointment in writing, with a statement of reasons. A Chair whose appointment expires at the end of the term in progress and who holds a faculty appointment to which a tenured or contractual right of appointment exists will be expected to resume active duties as a faculty member during the immediately upcoming fall semester unless he or she provides written notice of resignation from the faculty appointment to the Provost, with a copy to the appropriate Dean, within thirty calendar days of receipt of notice of non-reappointment.

303.1.5 Responsibilities of the Chairperson

The Chairperson of a Department is responsible to the Dean for the effective management and coordination of the work of the Department. The Chair's duties include:

- a. Consulting with the faculty regarding the development and implementation of guidelines for faculty assignments and the standards for decisions about changes in faculty status;
- b. Attending to courses of instruction and research and their purpose and content, and scheduling courses for and otherwise making assignments to faculty;
- c. Assessing the effectiveness of departmental instruction and student advising;
- d. Making recommendations to the Dean, following such consultation with department faculty as may be required by department guidelines, on the appointment of new faculty and reappointment of faculty;
- e. Fostering research and scholarship by department faculty, and assisting in appropriate administration of the research;
- f. Mentoring faculty and conducting annual performance review of faculty and reviews relating to reappointment, promotion and tenure status;
- g. Initiating corrective action relative to faculty performance or conduct;
- h. Preparing a budget for the unit and managing the budget after its adoption;
- i. Scheduling meetings to conduct department business, periodically on his/her own initiative or at the request of any two members of the Department, and otherwise consulting with Department faculty as may be necessary or desirable to the effective administration of the Department; and
- j. Being familiar with University, College/School, and Department policies and collective bargaining agreements as necessary to effectively carry out the responsibilities of a Chairperson.

With the prior authorization of the Provost, a Dean may authorize appointment of a Department Vice Chairperson where the Department size, Chair workload, or other reasonable administrative considerations render this action desirable. In this event, the Chair will appoint the Vice Chair following consultation with department faculty and following the approval of the Dean. Vice Chair appointments are subject to annual re-approval and renewal on a schedule commensurate with the University fiscal year, and the Dean must approve any supplemental compensation associated with the Vice Chair appointment. The Vice Chair may be delegated such duties as the Chair assigns, provided that the Chair remains ultimately responsible for the proper execution of all duties assigned to a Chair. The Chair is also responsible for the annual performance evaluation of a Vice Chair, in consultation with Department faculty. The Chair must work with Human Resource Services to determine the union status of the Vice Chair which will influence the duties that can be performed in this role.

303.1.6 Performance Review

a. Annual Review. The Dean shall conduct an annual written performance review of each Chairperson in the College or School. The Dean will meet with each Chair individually to discuss the results of the review and, subject to the approval of the Provost, to convey a reappointment decision and, as applicable, a salary award for the upcoming year.

b. Third-Year Review. The Dean shall conduct a formative written review of each Chairperson's performance during the fall semester of the third year of each five-year interval of appointment. The third-year evaluation process has as its primary goal to facilitate continued improvement of the academic leadership and management of the unit, for the benefit of the Department, the College or School, and the University. Each Department faculty member and staff shall be afforded an opportunity to provide input into this third-year performance review. Such input will be based upon the Chair's performance of the responsibilities set forth in Section 303.1.5 and as otherwise defined by the University through proper channels. For the third-year reviews, standardized evaluation forms will be distributed and administered by the Dean's Office in electronic format, so that confidentiality may be assured. The standardized form shall have the following characteristics: 1) the form will use a combination of descriptive criteria upon which the chair shall be ranked and opportunities for narrative comments to justify the ranks assigned; 2) respondents may reveal their identity but are not required to do so; and 3) the identities of the respondents will not be revealed to the Chair under review. The Dean shall prepare a written report on the Chair's administrative performance that shall include a summary of the faculty, staff, and student evaluations. The Dean will share this written report with the Chair, with a copy to the Provost. The Chair shall have the right to submit a written response. The Dean shall maintain a file of the third-year performance appraisals, the individual evaluation forms, and any responses from the Chair.

c. Periodic Comprehensive Review. All Chairpersons shall undergo a summative performance review at intervals of no more than five years. The primary objective of this review is to provide advice to the Dean as they determine whether a Chair's appointment should be continued. Such a review may be initiated at an earlier point at the request of the Dean, the Chair, or a majority of the faculty of the Department eligible to vote in Department matters pursuant to the policies or established practices of the Department.

The Dean shall appoint a committee to review the Chairperson, consisting of a minimum of five members, two of whom shall be elected faculty representatives from the Department. A minimum of three members of the committee, including its chair, must come from outside the Department. Unless an earlier review is initiated pursuant to this subsection, the committee will be charged during the fall semester of the fifth year. The review committee shall conduct its work in an expeditious manner. It will begin with a thorough review of the third-year evaluation documents. It shall consult with all faculty members, students, staff, and other administrators in the Department. The committee shall submit a report, in writing, to the appropriate Dean no later than February 1. The Dean shall present the full report of the review committee to the Chair, with a copy to the Provost. An accurate summary of the findings of the report will be made available to every faculty member and staff member of the Department.

303.1.7 Appointment Termination

Chair appointments terminate through resignation, non-reappointment, or termination for cause.

- a. Resignation. Resignation by a Chair must be made in writing to the Dean, with a copy to the Provost. The resignation shall take effect upon a date and terms memorialized in writing and mutually agreed by the Chair and the Dean, the latter in consultation with the Provost.
- b. Notice of Non-reappointment. Subject to the provisions of section 303.1.4, notice of non-reappointment will be given in writing by the Dean to the Chair, with the prior approval of the Provost, no later than May 1 of the year in progress, in the absence of extenuating circumstances.
- c. Compensation on Assumption or Resumption of Faculty Appointment. Upon resignation or non-reappointment, a Chair assuming or resuming a faculty appointment as to which a tenured or contractual right of appointment exists will do so at the salary set by the Dean in consultation with the successor Chair. The salary may include consideration of administrative experience gained as well as factors including the salary range of faculty of the same rank in the academic unit, academic experience and expertise, standing in the academic discipline, and duties to be performed. The individual shall also be entitled to the benefits otherwise available to faculty under the applicable Faculty Handbook or applicable collective bargaining agreement. Chairs eligible to accrue vacation time shall be paid for up to 270 hours within thirty days following the effective date of termination of the Chair's appointment, except in cases where the Chair assumes or resumes a twelve-month faculty appointment, in which case it will be carried over.
- d. Termination for Cause. A Chairperson is subject to termination for cause in the event of serious malfeasance or nonfeasance, including without limitation violations of University policy or law relevant to fitness as Chair, gross insubordination, falsification of records, or grossly negligent acts or omissions in the performance of duties. Any allegations of serious malfeasance or nonfeasance shall be referred to, or initiated by, the Dean. If, after consulting with the Provost, the Dean concludes that the conduct, if proved, would constitute a basis for termination, the procedures below will apply.

i. Notice of Charges. The Dean will promptly issue the Chair written notice of charges and a summary of the preliminary supporting evidence, and provide the Chair with an opportunity to respond within a specified time to the charges in a meeting and in writing. If the Dean determines that it would be in the best interests of the University, the College, the Department, or Academic Program for the Chair to be placed on paid administrative leave pending the results of an investigation, in the absence of extenuating circumstances the leave will be instituted with written notice to the Chair immediately following provision of the opportunity to respond to the charges.

ii. Investigation. The Dean will promptly commence an investigation responsive in nature and scope to the pending charges. If an investigative procedure otherwise relevant to the charges applies (such as those relating to investigative audits or discrimination complaints), the Dean will request initiation of such a process and await its findings and recommendations. The investigation will be completed within twenty business days except in extenuating circumstances, in which latter case the Dean will advise the Chair in writing of the delay and the revised date for completion of the investigation.

iii. Notice of Decision. After the investigation is complete, the Dean will in writing convey its results to the Chair, who will be given an opportunity to respond to the Dean in writing within ten business days. The Dean will issue a final written decision within twenty business days of receipt of the Chair's written response to the investigative report or within twenty business days following expiration of the response period if no response is submitted. The Dean's decision shall include a reiteration of the charges; a ruling on the charges, including a summary of the supporting evidence and statement of rationale for the decision; if the decision is to terminate the appointment, the effective date of termination; and the appeal process, including the filing deadline.

iv. Appeal of decision; final decision. The Chair may appeal to the Provost within ten business days following issuance of the Dean's decision. The appeal is made by the Chair filing with the Provost a notice of appeal and an explanation of the basis for the appeal. If an appeal is filed, the Provost will issue a final written decision within twenty business days of receipt of the appeal, a copy of which will be sent to the Dean. If the Chair does not appeal within the required time frame, or does not obtain from the Provost an extension of time within which to appeal for reasonable cause shown, the decision of the Dean shall be final. Compensation associated with the Chair appointment shall end as of the effective date of termination.

v. Faculty appointment. A Chair who has a preexisting faculty appointment shall retain the appointment notwithstanding a termination for cause of the chair appointment, unless the faculty status is itself affected under procedures applicable to faculty appointments. Duties associated with the faculty appointment shall resume as soon as feasible in light of unit needs as reasonably determined by the Dean in consultation with the successor Chair, but ordinarily no later than the first full semester following termination of the appointment.

303.2 Department Governance and Functions

303.2.1 Self-Governance

Each Department has jurisdiction over matters that concern its own internal policy and practices as long as the authority is exercised in a manner consistent with the policies of the College and of the University. Questions of precedence shall be determined in accordance with section 030.2. The Dean shall resolve questions of jurisdiction and responsibility between the Departments of a College upon referral of those questions by a Department Chair to the Dean. The Dean shall also resolve questions of jurisdiction between a Department and the faculty upon referral of those questions by the Department Chair or a faculty member of an affected Department to the Dean.

303.2.2 Functions of a Department

The principal functions of a Department are to:

- a. Develop an appropriate program of instruction, research, and service consistent with that College and the University;
- b. Study and employ ways and means of making its instruction more effective; and
- c. Maintain and effectively utilize the resources entrusted to it by the University.

304 Academic Programs at the College-level, Department-level, in Freestanding Schools, and Schools Within Colleges

304.1 Academic Program Directors

304.1.1 Description and Responsibilities

The Program Director is the administrator responsible for management and coordination of the work of a program as more specifically set forth in section 304.1.5.

304.1.2 Recruitment

Upon authorization of the Provost, the Dean, School Director, or Department Chair (“supervisor”) shall commence an internal recruitment for a new Program Director. The recruitment process will be determined by the supervisor and will include an open call announcing the position vacancy and providing all eligible faculty members with an opportunity to apply. The supervisor may be assisted and advised by a committee. The recruiting supervisor appoints the Program Director in consultation with their supervisor. The process for externally recruited Program Directors shall mirror faculty recruitment procedures as appropriate as the Program Director will require an underlying academic appointment.

304.1.3 Initial Appointment

Initial Program Director appointments are for a period of one year and are subject to annual reappointment on a schedule commensurate with the University fiscal year. The salary upon initial appointment of a Program Director, including the base salary associated with the faculty appointment, shall be set by the Provost following recommendation of the Dean and may, in the case of a faculty member assuming the appointment, include a salary increment for the assumption of Program Director duties. The supervisor shall inform the Program Director in writing at the time of initial appointment and any subsequent reappointments of the amount of any increment, such as an administrative stipend, associated with the Program Director duties and the basis for re-calculation of salary when the Program Director resumes or assumes a faculty appointment. All Program Director appointments shall be made expressly subject to applicable benefits policies and plans and to the provisions of the University Manual.

304.1.4 Reappointment

Following the initial term of appointment, Program Directors are subject to annual reappointment consideration. Decisions as to reappointment and non-reappointment shall be made by the supervisor prior to expiration of the appointment term in progress, subject to the prior approval of the Provost. A non-reappointment decision shall be based upon performance or reasonably derived strategic, programmatic, administrative, or financial reasons. The supervisor shall give the Program Director notice of non-reappointment in writing, with a statement of reasons. A Program Director whose appointment expires at the end of the term in progress and who holds a faculty appointment to which a tenured or contractual right of appointment exists will be expected to resume active duties as a faculty member during the immediately upcoming semester unless they provide written notice of resignation from the faculty appointment to the Provost, with a copy to the supervisor, within thirty calendar days of receipt of notice of non-reappointment.

304.1.5 Responsibilities of the Academic Program Director

The Program Director is responsible to the Dean, School Director, Department Chair for the effective management and coordination of the work of the program. The Program Director's duties include:

- a. Coordinating Program needs, including courses of instruction and their purpose and content, and scheduling courses for and otherwise suggesting assignments to faculty in cooperation with Chairpersons and/or other Program Directors and/or the School Director;
- b. Assessing the effectiveness of Program instruction and student advising;
- c. Making recommendations to the Dean, Chairperson or School Director, following consultation with Program faculty as may be required by Program guidelines, on the appointment of new faculty and reappointment of faculty to the Program;
- d. Fostering research, scholarship, and engagement related to the Program;
- e. Providing mentorship for faculty as appropriate;

- f. Preparing a budget for the Program and managing the budget after its adoption;
- g. Scheduling meetings to conduct Program business, periodically on his/her own initiative or at the request of any two members of the Program, and otherwise consulting with Program faculty as may be necessary or desirable to the effective administration of the Program; and
- h. Being familiar with University, College/School, and Program policies and collective bargaining agreements as necessary to effectively carry out the responsibilities of a Program Director.

304.1.6 Performance Review

- a. Annual Review. The supervisor shall conduct an annual written performance review of each Program Director in the College or School. The supervisor will meet with each Program Director individually to discuss the results of the review and, subject to the approval of the Provost, to convey a reappointment decision and, as applicable, a salary award for the upcoming year.
- b. Comprehensive Review. Department-level Program Directors are not subject to comprehensive reviews. In the case of all other Program Directors, the Dean or School Director shall conduct a comprehensive review of each Program Director within the first five years of the appointment. The primary goals of the review are to assess the Program Director's effectiveness and to facilitate continued improvement. The review process will be determined by the supervisor and the Provost, and shall provide confidential opportunities for input from senior level direct reports, and a cross-section of constituent groups external to the unit closely aligned with or impacted by the work of the Program Director. The Dean or School Director shall prepare a written report on the Program Director's administrative performance that shall include a summary of the input received. The Dean or School Director will share this written report with the Program Director, with a copy to the Provost. The Program Director shall have the right to submit a written response. The Dean or School Director shall maintain a file of all review materials and any responses from the Program Director.

304.1.7 Appointment Termination.

Program Director appointments terminate through resignation, non-reappointment, or termination for cause.

- a. Resignation. Resignation by a Program Director must be made in writing to the Supervisor, with a copy to the Provost. The Dean must be copied on any resignation letters to the School Director or Department Chair. The resignation shall take effect upon a date and terms memorialized in writing and mutually agreed by the Program Director and the supervisor in consultation with the next-level supervisor.
- b. Notice of Non-reappointment. Subject to the provisions of section 304.1.4, notice of non-reappointment will be given in writing by the supervisor to the Program Director, with the prior approval of the Provost, no later than May 1 of the year in progress, in the absence of extenuating circumstances.

c. Compensation on Assumption or Resumption of Faculty Appointment. Upon resignation or non-reappointment, a Program Director assuming or resuming a faculty appointment as to which a tenured or contractual right of appointment exists will do so at the salary set by the supervisor in consultation with the Program Director's Department Chair and Dean. The salary may include consideration of administrative experience gained as well as factors including the salary range of faculty of the same rank in the academic unit, academic experience and expertise, standing in the academic discipline, and duties to be performed. The individual shall also be entitled to the benefits otherwise available to faculty under the applicable Faculty Handbook or applicable collective bargaining agreement. Program Directors eligible to accrue vacation time shall be paid for up to 270 hours within thirty days following the effective date of termination of the Program Director's appointment, except in cases where the Program Director assumes or resumes a twelve-month faculty appointment, in which case it will be carried over.

d. Termination for Cause. A Program Director is subject to termination for cause in the event of serious malfeasance or nonfeasance, including without limitation violations of University policy or law relevant to fitness as Program Director, gross insubordination, falsification of records, or grossly negligent acts or omissions in the performance of duties. Any allegations of serious malfeasance or nonfeasance shall be referred to, or initiated by, the supervisor. If, after consulting with the Provost, the supervisor concludes that the conduct, if proved, would constitute a basis for termination, the provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement apply.

304.1.8 Faculty Appointment

A Program Director who has a preexisting faculty appointment shall retain the appointment notwithstanding a termination for cause of the Program Director appointment, unless the faculty status is itself affected under procedures applicable to faculty appointments. Duties associated with the faculty appointment shall resume as soon as feasible in light of Academic Program needs as reasonably determined by the Dean or School Director in consultation with the Program Director's Chairperson, but ordinarily no later than the first full semester following termination of the appointment.

304.2 Academic Program Governance and Functions

304.2.1 Self-Governance

Each Academic Program has jurisdiction over matters that concern its own internal policy and practices as long as the authority is exercised in a manner consistent with the policies of the College or School or Department and of the University. Questions of precedence shall be determined in accordance with section 030.2. The Dean or School Director or Department Chair shall resolve questions of jurisdiction and responsibility between the Academic Program of a College, School, or School within a College, or Department upon referral of those questions by a Program Director to the Dean or School Director or Department Chair. The Dean or School Director shall also resolve questions of jurisdiction between an Academic Program and the faculty upon referral of those questions by the Program Director or a faculty member of an affected Academic Program to the Dean or School Director or Department Chair.

304.2.2 Functions of an Academic Program

The principal functions of an Academic Program are to:

- a. Develop an appropriate program of instruction consistent with that of the Department, College or School and the University;
- b. Study and employ ways and means of making its instruction more effective; and
- c. Maintain and effectively utilize the resources entrusted to it by the University.

305 Schools Within Colleges

305.1 School Directors

305.1.1 Description and Responsibilities

A School Director is the administrator responsible for management and coordination of the work of a school within a college as more specifically set forth in section 305.1.5.

305.1.2 Recruitment

Upon authorization of the Provost, the Dean shall commence an internal or external recruitment for a new School Director assisted and advised by a search committee appointed by the Dean in consultation with the Provost. The search committee will ordinarily include no fewer than three members of the School, two of whom will be elected by the School faculty. The committee may also include a Program Director from the School or another Department or Program within the College for which the School Director is being recruited; and, as desirable, a faculty member from another College or freestanding School whose academic programs interrelate with those of the School for which the School Director is being recruited. A majority of the search committee members shall hold appointments in the School for which the School Director is being recruited. The search committee shall invite all members of the School to meet candidates and to express their recommendations through the search committee to the Dean. Subject to the approval of the Provost, and following consideration by the Dean and the Provost of the recommendations of the search committee, the School Director is appointed by the Dean of the College.

305.1.3 Initial Appointment

Initial School Director appointments are for a period of one year and are subject to annual reappointment on a schedule commensurate with the University fiscal year. The salary upon initial appointment of a School Director, including the base salary associated with the faculty appointment, shall be set by the Provost following recommendation of the Dean and may, in the case of a faculty member assuming the appointment, include a salary increment for the assumption of School Director duties. The Dean shall inform the School Director in writing at the time of initial appointment and any subsequent reappointments of the amount of any increment, such as an administrative stipend, associated with the School Director duties and the basis for re-calculation of salary when the School Director resumes or assumes a faculty appointment. All School Director appointments shall be made expressly subject to applicable benefits policies and plans and to the provisions of the University Manual.

305.1.4 Reappointment

Following the initial term of appointment, School Directors are subject to annual reappointment consideration. Decisions as to reappointment and non-reappointment shall be made by the appropriate Dean prior to expiration of the appointment term in progress, subject to the prior approval of the Provost. A non-reappointment decision shall be based upon performance or reasonably derived strategic, programmatic, administrative, or financial reasons. The Dean shall give the School Director notice of non-reappointment in writing, with a statement of reasons. A School Director whose appointment expires at the end of the term in progress and who holds a faculty appointment to which a tenured or contractual right of appointment exists will be expected to resume active duties as a faculty member during the immediately upcoming semester unless he or she provides written notice of resignation from the faculty appointment to the Provost, with a copy to the Dean, within thirty calendar days of receipt of notice of non-reappointment.

305.1.5 Responsibilities of the School Director

The School Director is responsible to the Dean for the effective management and coordination of the work of a school within a college. The School Director's duties include:

- d. Consulting with Program Directors regarding faculty contributions and effort devoted to the School;
- e. Attending to courses of instruction and their purpose and content, and scheduling courses for and otherwise making assignments to faculty in cooperation with Program Directors;
- f. Assessing the effectiveness of School instruction and student advising;
- g. Making recommendations to the Dean, following such consultation with School faculty as may be required by School guidelines, on the appointment of new faculty and reappointment of faculty to the School;
- h. Fostering research and scholarship by School faculty, and assisting in appropriate administration of the research;
- i. Mentoring faculty and contributing to annual performance review of faculty and reviews relating to reappointment, promotion and tenure;
- j. Initiating corrective action relative to School faculty performance or conduct;
- k. Preparing a budget for the School and managing the budget after its adoption;

- i. Scheduling meetings to conduct School business, periodically on his/her own initiative or at the request of any two members of the School, and otherwise consulting with School faculty as may be necessary or desirable to the effective administration of the School; and
- j. Being familiar with University, College, School, and Program policies and collective bargaining agreements as necessary to effectively carry out the responsibilities of a School Director.

305.1.6 Performance Review

- a. Annual Review. The Dean shall conduct an annual written performance review of each School Director in the College. The Dean will meet with each School Director individually to discuss the results of the review and, subject to the approval of the Provost, to convey a reappointment decision and, as applicable, a salary award for the upcoming year.
- b. Third-Year Review. The Dean shall conduct a formative written review of each School Director's performance during the fall semester of the third year of each five-year interval of appointment. The third-year evaluation process has as its primary goal to facilitate continued improvement of the academic leadership and management of the School, for the benefit of the School, the College, and the University. Each School faculty and staff member shall be afforded an opportunity to provide input into this third-year performance review. Such input will be based upon the School Director's performance of the responsibilities set forth in section 305.1.5 and as otherwise defined by the University through proper channels. For the third-year reviews, standardized evaluation forms will be distributed and administered by the Dean's office in electronic format, so that confidentiality may be assured. The standardized form shall have the following characteristics: 1) the form will use a combination of descriptive criteria upon which the School Director shall be ranked and opportunities for narrative comments to justify the ranks assigned; 2) respondents may reveal their identity but are not required to do so; and 3) the identities of the participants will not be revealed to the School Director under review. The Dean shall prepare a written report on the School Director's administrative performance that shall include a summary of the faculty, staff, and student evaluations. The Dean will share this written report with the School Director, with a copy to the Provost. The School Director shall have the right to submit a written response. The Dean shall maintain a file of the third-year performance appraisals, the individual evaluation forms, and any responses from the School Director.
- c. Periodic Comprehensive Review. All School Directors shall undergo a summative performance review at intervals of no more than five years. The primary objective of this review is to provide advice to the Dean as they determine whether a School Director's appointment should be continued. Such a review may be initiated at an earlier point at the request of the Dean, the School Director, or a majority of the faculty of the School eligible to vote in School matters pursuant to the policies or established practices of the School. The Dean shall appoint a committee to review the School Director, consisting of a minimum of five members, two of whom shall be elected faculty representatives from the School. A minimum of three members of the committee, including its chair, must come from outside the School. Unless an earlier review is initiated pursuant to this subsection, the committee will be charged during the fall semester of the fifth year. The review committee shall conduct its work in an expeditious manner. It will begin with a thorough review of the third-year evaluation documents. It shall consult with all faculty members, students, staff, and other administrators in the School. The committee shall submit a report, in writing, to the appropriate Dean no later than February 1. The Dean shall present the full report of the review committee to the School Director, with a copy to the Provost. An accurate summary of the findings of the report will be made available to every faculty and staff member.

305.1.7 Appointment Termination.

School Director appointments terminate through resignation, non-reappointment, or termination for cause.

a. Resignation. Resignation by a School Director must be made in writing to the Dean, with a copy to the Provost. The resignation shall take effect upon a date and terms memorialized in writing and mutually agreed by the School Director and the Dean, the latter in consultation with the Provost.

b. Notice of Non-reappointment. Subject to the provisions of section 305.1.4, notice of non-reappointment will be given in writing by the Dean to the School Director, with the prior approval of the Provost, no later than May 1 of the year in progress, in the absence of extenuating circumstances.

c. Compensation on Assumption or Resumption of Faculty Appointment. Upon resignation or non-reappointment, a School Director assuming or resuming a faculty appointment as to which a tenured or contractual right of appointment exists will do so at the salary set by the Dean in consultation with the successor School Director. The salary may include consideration of administrative experience gained as well as factors including the salary range of faculty of the same rank in the academic unit, academic experience and expertise, standing in the academic discipline, and duties to be performed. The individual shall also be entitled to the benefits otherwise available to faculty under the applicable Faculty Handbook or applicable collective bargaining agreement. School Directors eligible to accrue vacation time shall be paid for up to 270 hours within thirty days following the effective date of termination of the School Director's appointment, except in cases where the School Director assumes or resumes a twelve-month faculty appointment, in which case it will be carried over.

d. Termination for Cause. A School Director is subject to termination for cause in the event of serious malfeasance or nonfeasance, including without limitation violations of University policy or law relevant to fitness as School Director, gross insubordination, falsification of records, or grossly negligent acts or omissions in the performance of duties. Any allegations of serious malfeasance or nonfeasance shall be referred to, or initiated by, the Dean or School Director. If, after consulting with the Provost, the Dean concludes that the conduct, if proved, would constitute a basis for termination, the procedures below will apply.

i. Notice of Charges. The Dean will promptly issue the School Director written notice of charges and a summary of the preliminary supporting evidence, and provide the School Director with an opportunity to respond within a specified time to the charges in a meeting and in writing. If the Dean determines that it would be in the best interests of the University, the College, or the School for the School Director to be placed on paid administrative leave pending the results of an investigation, in the absence of extenuating circumstances the leave will be instituted with written notice to the School Director immediately following provision of the opportunity to respond to the charges.

ii. Investigation. The Dean will promptly commence an investigation responsive in nature and scope to the pending charges. If an investigative procedure otherwise relevant to the charges applies (such as those relating to investigative audits or discrimination complaints), the Dean will request initiation of such a process and await its findings and recommendations. The investigation will be completed within twenty business days except in extenuating circumstances, in which latter case the Dean will advise the School Director in writing of the delay and the revised date for completion of the investigation.

iii. Notice of Decision. After the investigation is complete, the Dean will in writing convey its results to the School Director, who will be given an opportunity to respond to the Dean in writing within ten business days. The Dean will issue a final written decision within twenty business days of receipt of the School Director's written response to the investigative report or within twenty business days following expiration of the response period if no response is submitted. The Dean's decision shall include a reiteration of the charges; a ruling on the charges, including a summary of the supporting evidence and statement of rationale for the decision; if the decision is to terminate the appointment, the effective date of termination; and the appeal process, including the filing deadline.

iv. Appeal of Decision; Final Decision. The School Director may appeal to the Provost within ten business days following issuance of the Dean's decision. The appeal is made by the School Director filing with the Provost a notice of appeal and an explanation of the basis for the appeal. If an appeal is filed, the Provost will issue a final written decision within twenty business days of receipt of the appeal, a copy of which will be sent to the Dean. If the School Director does not appeal within the required time frame, or does not obtain from the Provost an extension of time within which to appeal for reasonable cause shown, the decision of the Dean shall be final. Compensation associated with the School Director appointment shall end as of the effective date of termination.

v. Faculty Appointment. A School Director who has a preexisting faculty appointment shall retain the appointment notwithstanding a termination for cause of the School Director appointment, unless the faculty status is itself affected under procedures applicable to faculty appointments. Duties associated with the faculty appointment shall resume as soon as feasible in light of School needs as reasonably determined by the Dean in consultation with the successor School Director, but ordinarily no later than the first full semester following termination of the appointment.

305.2 School Within a College Governance and Functions

305.2.1 Self-Governance

Each School within a College has jurisdiction over matters that concern its own internal policy and practices as long as the authority is exercised in a manner consistent with the policies of the College, and of the University. Questions of precedence shall be determined in accordance with section 030.2. The Dean shall resolve questions of jurisdiction and responsibility between Schools, and Departments and Programs in a College upon referral of those questions by a School Director to the Dean. The Dean shall also resolve questions of jurisdiction between a School and the faculty upon referral of those questions by the School Director or a faculty member of an affected School to the Dean.

305.2.2 Functions of a School Within a College

The principal functions of a School within a College are to:

- a. Develop an appropriate program of instruction consistent with that of College and the University;
- b. Study and employ ways and means of making its instruction more effective; and
- c. Maintain and effectively utilize the resources entrusted to it by the University.

306 Colleges and Freestanding Schools

306.1 Associate Deans

306.1.1 Description and Responsibilities

As delegated by the Dean, Associate Deans are responsible for supporting the management and coordination of work in a College or freestanding School as more specifically set forth in section 306.1.5.

306.1.2 Recruitment

Upon authorization of the Provost, the Dean shall commence an internal recruitment for a new Associate Dean. The recruitment process will be determined by the Dean and will include an open call announcing the position vacancy and providing all eligible faculty members with an opportunity to apply. The Dean may be assisted and advised by a committee. The Dean appoints the Associate Dean in consultation with the Provost. The process for externally recruited Associate Deans shall mirror faculty recruitment procedures as appropriate, as the Associate Dean will require an underlying academic appointment.

306.1.3 Initial Appointment

Initial Associate Dean appointments are for one year and are subject to annual reappointment on a schedule commensurate with the University fiscal year. The salary upon initial appointment of an Associate Dean, including the base salary associated with the faculty appointment, shall be set by the Provost following recommendation of the Dean and may, in the case of a faculty member assuming the appointment, include a salary increment for the assumption of Associate Dean duties. The Dean shall inform the Associate Dean in writing at the time of initial appointment and any subsequent reappointments of the amount of any increment, such as an administrative stipend, associated with the Associate Dean duties and the basis for re-calculation of salary when the Associate Dean resumes or assumes a faculty appointment. All Associate Dean appointments shall be made expressly subject to applicable benefits policies and plans and to the provisions of the University Manual.

306.1.4 Reappointment

Following the initial term of appointment, Associate Deans are subject to annual reappointment consideration. Decisions as to reappointment and non-reappointment shall be made by the appropriate Dean prior to expiration of the appointment term in progress, subject to the prior approval of the Provost. A non-reappointment decision shall be based upon performance or reasonably derived strategic, programmatic, administrative, or financial reasons. The Dean shall give the Associate Dean notice of non-reappointment in writing, with a statement of reasons. An Associate Dean whose appointment expires at the end of the term in progress and who holds a faculty appointment to which a tenured or contractual right of appointment exists will be expected to resume active duties as a faculty member during the immediately upcoming semester unless he or she provides written notice of resignation from the faculty appointment to the Provost, with a copy to the Dean, within thirty calendar days of receipt of notice of non-reappointment.

306.1.5 Responsibilities of the Associate Dean

The Associate Dean is responsible to the Dean for the effective management and coordination of particular elements of the work of the College or School as delegated by the Dean and may include areas such as academic affairs, enrollment management, faculty affairs, research, or student affairs. In freestanding Schools, an Associate Dean may also be responsible for duties typically assigned to Department Chairs relative to faculty assignments, supervision, review, and the reappointment, promotion, and tenure processes.

306.1.6 Performance Review

a. Annual Review. The Dean shall conduct an annual written performance review of each Associate Dean in the College or School. The Dean will meet with each Associate Dean individually to discuss the results of the review and, subject to the approval of the Provost, to convey a reappointment decision and, as applicable, a salary award for the upcoming year.

b. Comprehensive Review. The Dean shall conduct a comprehensive review of each Associate Dean within the first five years of the appointment. The primary goals of the review are to assess the Associate Dean's effectiveness and to facilitate continued improvement. The review process will be determined by the supervisor and the Provost, and shall provide confidential opportunities for input from senior level direct reports, and a cross-section of constituent groups external to the unit closely aligned with or impacted by the work of the Associate Dean. The Dean shall prepare a written report on the Associate Dean's administrative performance that shall include a summary of the input received. The Dean will share this written report with the Associate Dean, with a copy to the Provost. The Associate Dean shall have the right to submit a written response. The Dean shall maintain a file of all review materials and any responses from the Associate Dean.

306.1.7 Appointment Termination.

Associate Dean appointments terminate through resignation, non-reappointment, or termination for cause.

a. Resignation. Resignation by an Associate Dean must be made in writing to the Dean with a copy to the Provost. The resignation shall take effect upon a date and terms memorialized in writing and mutually agreed by the Associate Dean and the Dean.

b. Notice of Non-reappointment. Subject to the provisions of section 306.1.4, notice of non-reappointment will be given in writing by the Dean to the Associate Dean, with the prior approval of the Provost, no later than May 1 of the year in progress, in the absence of extenuating circumstances.

c. Compensation on Assumption or Resumption of Faculty Appointment. Upon resignation or non-reappointment, an Associate Dean assuming or resuming a faculty appointment as to which a tenured or contractual right of appointment exists will do so at the salary set by the Dean in consultation with the Associate Dean's Department Chair or Program Director. The salary may include consideration of administrative experience gained as well as factors including the salary range of faculty of the same rank in the academic unit, academic experience and expertise, standing in the academic discipline, and duties to be performed. The individual shall also be entitled to the benefits otherwise available to faculty under the applicable Faculty Handbook or applicable collective bargaining agreement. Associate Deans eligible to accrue vacation time shall be paid for up to 270 hours within thirty days following the effective date of termination of the Associate Dean's appointment, except in cases where the Associate Dean assumes or resumes a twelve-month faculty appointment, in which case it will be carried over.

d. Termination for Cause. An Associate Dean is subject to termination for cause in the event of serious malfeasance or nonfeasance, including without limitation violations of University policy or law relevant to fitness as Associate Dean, gross insubordination, falsification of records, or grossly negligent acts or omissions in the performance of duties. Any allegations of serious malfeasance or nonfeasance shall be referred to, or initiated by, the Dean. If, after consulting with the Provost, the Dean concludes that the conduct, if proved, would constitute a basis for termination, the procedures below will apply to Associate Deans who are not members of the Collective Bargaining Unit.

i. Notice of Charges. The Dean will promptly issue the Associate Dean written notice of charges and a summary of the preliminary supporting evidence, and provide the Associate Dean with an opportunity to respond within a specified time to the charges in a meeting and in writing. If the Dean determines that it would be in the best interests of the University, the College or School for the Associate Dean to be placed on paid administrative leave pending the results of an investigation, in the absence of extenuating circumstances the leave will be instituted with written notice to the Associate Dean immediately following provision of the opportunity to respond to the charges.

ii. Investigation. The Dean will promptly commence an investigation responsive in nature and scope to the pending charges. If an investigative procedure otherwise relevant to the charges applies (such as those relating to investigative audits or discrimination complaints), the Dean will request initiation of such a process and await its findings and recommendations. The investigation will be completed within twenty business days except in extenuating circumstances, in which latter case the Dean will advise the Associate Dean in writing of the delay and the revised date for completion of the investigation.

iii. Notice of Decision. After the investigation is complete, the Dean will in writing convey its results to the Associate Dean, who will be given an opportunity to respond to the Dean in writing within ten business days. The Dean will issue a final written decision within twenty business days of receipt of the Associate Dean's written response to the investigative report or within twenty business days following expiration of the response period if no response is submitted. The Dean's decision shall include a reiteration of the charges; a ruling on the charges, including a summary of the supporting evidence and statement of rationale for the decision; if the decision is to terminate the appointment, the effective date of termination; and the appeal process, including the filing deadline.

iv. Appeal of Decision; Final Decision. The Associate Dean may appeal to the Provost within ten business days following issuance of the Dean's decision. The appeal is made by the Associate Dean filing with the Provost a notice of appeal and an explanation of the basis for the appeal. If an appeal is filed, the Provost will issue a final written decision within twenty business days of receipt of the appeal, a copy of which will be sent to the Dean. If the Associate Dean does not appeal within the required time frame, or does not obtain from the Provost an extension of time within which to appeal for reasonable cause shown, the decision of the Dean shall be final. Compensation associated with the Associate Dean appointment shall end as of the effective date of termination.

v. Faculty Appointment. An Associate Dean who has a preexisting faculty appointment shall retain the appointment notwithstanding a termination for cause of the Associate Dean appointment, unless the faculty status is itself affected under procedures applicable to faculty appointments. Duties associated with the faculty appointment shall resume as soon as feasible in light of Department or Academic Program needs as reasonably determined by the Dean in consultation with the Associate Dean's Chairperson or Program Director, but ordinarily no later than the first full semester following termination of the appointment.

307 Office of the Provost

307.1 Academic Vice Provosts

307.1.1 Description and Responsibilities

As delegated by the Provost, an Academic Vice Provost (or “Vice Provost”) is responsible for management and coordination of work in the Office of the Provost and/or a Vice Provostial division as determined by the Provost, as more specifically set forth in section 307.1.5, and for which faculty standing and a tenured faculty appointment is required.

307.1.2 Recruitment

Upon authorization of the President, the Provost shall commence an internal recruitment for a new Vice Provost. The recruitment process will be determined by the Provost and will include an open call announcing the position vacancy and providing all eligible faculty members with an opportunity to apply. The Provost may be assisted and advised by a committee. The Provost appoints the Vice Provost in consultation with the President. The process for externally recruited Vice Provosts shall mirror faculty recruitment procedures as appropriate, as the Vice Provost will require an underlying academic appointment.

307.1.3 Initial Appointment

Initial Vice Provost appointments are for a period of one year and are subject to annual reappointment on a schedule commensurate with the University fiscal year. The salary upon initial appointment of a Vice Provost, including the base salary associated with the faculty appointment, shall be set by the Provost following recommendation of the Dean and may, in the case of a faculty member assuming the appointment, include a salary increment for the assumption of Vice Provost duties. The Provost shall inform the Vice Provost in writing at the time of initial appointment and any subsequent reappointments of the amount of any increment, such as an administrative stipend, associated with the Vice Provost duties and the basis for re-calculation of salary when the Vice Provost resumes or assumes a faculty appointment. All Vice Provost appointments shall be made expressly subject to applicable benefits policies and plans and to the provisions of the University Manual.

307.1.4 Reappointment

Following the initial term of appointment, Vice Provosts are subject to annual reappointment consideration. Decisions as to reappointment and non-reappointment shall be made by the Provost prior to expiration of the appointment term in progress, subject to the prior approval of the President. A non-reappointment decision shall be based upon performance or reasonably derived strategic, programmatic, administrative, or financial reasons. The Provost shall give the Vice Provost notice of non-reappointment in writing, with a statement of reasons. A Vice Provost whose appointment expires at the end of the term in progress and who holds a faculty appointment to which a tenured or contractual right of appointment exists will be expected to resume active duties as a faculty member during the immediately upcoming fall semester unless they provide written notice of resignation from the faculty appointment to the Provost within thirty calendar days of receipt of notice of non-reappointment.

307.1.5 Responsibilities of the Academic Vice Provost

The Vice Provost is responsible to the Provost for the effective management and coordination of particular elements of the work of the Office of the Provost and/or a Provostial division as delegated by the Provost and may include areas such as academic affairs, faculty affairs, and research.

307.1.6 Performance Review

- a. Annual Review. The Provost shall conduct an annual written performance review of each Vice Provost. The Provost will meet with each Vice Provost individually to discuss the results of the review and, subject to the approval of the President, to convey a reappointment decision and, as applicable, a salary award for the upcoming year.

- b. Comprehensive Review. The Provost shall conduct a comprehensive review of each Academic Vice Provost within the first five years of the appointment. The primary goals of the review are to assess the Academic Vice Provost's effectiveness and to facilitate continued improvement. The review process will be determined by the Provost and the President, and shall provide confidential opportunities for input from senior-level direct reports, and a cross-section of constituent groups external to the unit closely aligned with or impacted by the work of the Academic Vice Provost. The Provost shall prepare a written report on the Academic Vice Provost's administrative performance that shall include a summary of the input received. The Provost will share this written report with the Academic Vice Provost, with a copy to the President. The Academic Vice Provost shall have the right to submit a written response. The Provost shall maintain a file of all review materials and any responses from the Academic Vice Provost.

307.1.7 Appointment Termination

Vice Provost appointments terminate through resignation, non-reappointment, or termination with notice or for cause as governed by Section 204.3 of the University Manual.

308 University-wide Academic Centers and Institutes

308.1 Academic Center and Institute Directors

308.1.1 Description and Responsibilities

The Academic Center/Institute Director is the administrator responsible for management and coordination of the work of a center or institute as more specifically set forth in section 308.1.5.

308.1.2 Recruitment

Upon authorization of the Provost and/or President, the Vice President for Research or Provost (“supervisor”), shall commence an internal recruitment for a new Academic Center/Institute Director. The recruitment process will be determined by the supervisor and will include an open call announcing the position vacancy and providing all eligible faculty members with an opportunity to apply. The supervisor may be assisted and advised by a committee. The supervisor appoints the Academic Center/Institute Director in consultation with the President and/or Provost. The process for externally recruited Academic Center/Institute Directors shall mirror faculty recruitment procedures as appropriate as the Academic Center/Institute Director will require an underlying academic appointment.

308.1.3 Initial Appointment

Initial Academic Center/Institute Director appointments are for a period of one year and are subject to annual reappointment on a schedule commensurate with the University fiscal year. The salary upon initial appointment of an Academic Center/Institute Director, including the base salary associated with the faculty appointment, shall be set by the supervisor following recommendation of the Provost and Dean and may, in the case of a faculty member assuming the appointment, include a salary increment for the assumption of Academic Center/Institute Director duties. The supervisor shall inform the Academic Center/Institute Director in writing at the time of initial appointment and any subsequent reappointments of the amount of any increment, such as an administrative stipend, associated with the Academic Center/Institute Director duties and the basis for re-calculation of salary when the Academic Center/Institute Director resumes or assumes a faculty appointment. All Academic Center/Institute Director appointments shall be made expressly subject to applicable benefits policies and plans and to the provisions of the University Manual.

308.1.4 Reappointment

Following the initial term of appointment, Academic Center/Institute Directors are subject to annual reappointment consideration. Decisions as to reappointment and non-reappointment shall be made by the supervisor prior to expiration of the appointment term in progress, subject to the prior approval of the President and/or Provost. A non-reappointment decision shall be based upon performance or reasonably derived strategic, programmatic, administrative, or financial reasons. The supervisor shall give the Academic Center/Institute Director notice of non-reappointment in writing, with a statement of reasons. An Academic Center/Institute Director whose appointment expires at the end of the term in progress and who holds a faculty appointment to which a tenured or contractual right of appointment exists will be expected to resume active duties as a faculty member during the immediately upcoming semester unless they provide written notice of resignation from the faculty appointment to the supervisor, with a copy to the Dean, within thirty calendar days of receipt of notice of non-reappointment.

308.1.5 Responsibilities of the Academic Center or Institute Director

The Academic Center/Institute Director is responsible to the supervisor for the effective management and coordination of the work of the Academic Center/Institute. The Academic Center/Institute Director’s duties include:

- a. Coordinating Center/Institute needs in cooperation with Deans, School Directors, Chairpersons and/or other Program Directors;
- b. Assessing the effectiveness of Academic Center/Institute activities;
- c. Making recommendations to the supervisor, following such consultation with Academic Center/Institute faculty as may be required by Academic Center/Institute guidelines, on the appointment of new faculty and reappointment of faculty to the Academic Center/Institute;
- d. Fostering research, scholarship, and engagement related to the Academic Center/Institute;
- e. Provide mentorship for faculty as appropriate.
- f. Preparing a budget for the Academic Center/Institute and managing the budget after its adoption; seeking external resources to support Academic Center/Institute activities;
- g. Scheduling meetings to conduct Academic Center/Institute business, periodically on their own initiative or at the request of any two members of the Academic Center/Institute and otherwise consulting with Academic Center/Institute faculty as may be necessary or desirable to the effective administration of the Academic Center/Institute; and
- h. Being familiar with University, College/School, and Academic Center/Institute policies and collective bargaining agreements as necessary to effectively carry out the responsibilities of an Academic Center/Institute Director.

308.1.6 Performance Review

- a. Annual Review. The supervisor shall conduct an annual written performance review of each Academic Center/Institute Director. The supervisor will meet with each Academic Center/Institute Director individually to discuss the results of the review and, subject to the approval of the President and/or Provost, to convey a reappointment decision and, as applicable, a salary award for the upcoming year.
- b. Comprehensive Review. The supervisor shall conduct a comprehensive review of each Academic Center or Institute Director within the first five years of the appointment. The primary goals of the review are to assess the Academic Center or Institute Director's effectiveness and to facilitate continued improvement. The review process will be determined by the supervisor and the next-level supervisor, and shall provide confidential opportunities for input from senior level direct reports, and a cross-section of constituent groups external to the unit closely aligned with or impacted by the work of the Academic Center or Institute Director. The supervisor shall prepare a written report on the Academic Center or Institute Director's administrative performance that shall include a summary of the input received. The supervisor will share this written report with the Academic Center/Institute Director, with a copy to the President. The Academic Center/Institute Director shall have the right to submit a written response. The supervisor shall maintain a file of all review materials and any responses from the Academic Center/Institute Director.

308.1.7 Appointment Termination

Academic Center/Institute Director appointments terminate through resignation, non-reappointment, or termination for cause.

a. Resignation. Resignation by an Academic Center/Institute Director must be made in writing to the supervisor, with a copy to the President and/or Provost, and Dean. The resignation shall take effect upon a date and terms memorialized in writing and mutually agreed by the Academic Center/Institute Director and the supervisor, and the next-level supervisor.

b. Notice of Non-reappointment. Subject to the provisions of section 308.1.4, notice of non-reappointment will be given in writing by the supervisor to the Academic Center/Institute Director, with the prior approval of the next-level supervisor, no later than May 1 of the year in progress, in the absence of extenuating circumstances.

c. Compensation on Assumption or Resumption of Faculty Appointment. Upon resignation or non-reappointment, an Academic Center/Institute Director assuming or resuming a faculty appointment as to which a tenured or contractual right of appointment exists will do so at the salary set by the supervisor in consultation with the Academic Center/Institute's Director's Dean. The salary may include consideration of administrative experience gained as well as factors including the salary range of faculty of the same rank in the academic unit, academic experience and expertise, standing in the academic discipline, and duties to be performed. The individual shall also be entitled to the benefits otherwise available to faculty under the applicable Faculty Handbook or applicable collective bargaining agreement. Academic Center/Institute Directors eligible to accrue vacation time shall be paid for up to 270 hours within thirty days following the effective date of termination of the Academic Center/Institute Director's appointment, except in cases where the Academic Center/Institute Director assumes or resumes a twelve-month faculty appointment, in which case it will be carried over.

d. Termination for Cause. An Academic Center/Institute Director is subject to termination for cause in the event of serious malfeasance or nonfeasance, including without limitation violations of University policy or law relevant to fitness as Academic Center/Institute Director, gross insubordination, falsification of records, or grossly negligent acts or omissions in the performance of duties. Any allegations of serious malfeasance or nonfeasance shall be referred to, or initiated by, the supervisor. If, after consulting with the next-level supervisor, the supervisor concludes that the conduct, if proved, would constitute a basis for termination, the provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement apply.

e. Faculty Appointment. An Academic Center/Institute Director who has a preexisting faculty appointment shall retain the appointment notwithstanding a termination for cause of the Academic Center/Institute Director appointment, unless the faculty status is itself affected under procedures applicable to faculty appointments. Duties associated with the faculty appointment shall resume as soon as feasible in light of College/School needs as reasonably determined by the Dean in consultation with the Academic Center/Institute's Director's Chairperson or Program Director, but ordinarily no later than the first full semester following termination of the appointment.

308.2 Academic Center and Institute Governance and Functions

308.2.1 Self-Governance

Each Academic Center/Institute has jurisdiction over matters that concern its own internal policy and practices as long as the authority is exercised in a manner consistent with the policies of the University. Questions of precedence shall be determined in accordance with section 030.2. The supervisor shall resolve questions of jurisdiction and responsibility of an Academic Center/Institute upon referral of those questions by an Academic Center/Institute Director. The supervisor shall also resolve questions of jurisdiction between an Academic Center/Institute and the faculty upon referral of those questions by the Academic Center/Institute Director or a faculty member of an affected unit.

308.2.2 Functions of an Academic Center or Institute

The principal functions of an Academic Center/Institute are to:

- a. Facilitate the performance of interdisciplinary or focused curricular or instruction, research, scholarship or creative arts activities consistent with that of the University,
- b. Study and employ ways and means of making its activities more effective; and
- c. Maintain and effectively utilize the resources entrusted to it by the University.

APPENDICES

FACULTY SENATE CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS

FACULTY AGREEMENTS

Larner College of Medicine Faculty Handbook

Collective Bargaining Agreement governing represented full-time faculty

Collective Bargaining Agreement governing represented part-time faculty

UNIVERSITY CATALOGUE

BOARD OF TRUSTEES' POLICY MANUAL

UNIVERSITY POLICIES WEBPAGE

REVISION JURISDICTION

University Manual Section 020 Adoption and Revision

"The University Manual shall be maintained by the Office of the Provost and Senior Vice President. It's provisions may be revised by persons of bodies having jurisdiction over such matters under governance requirements...For the sake of clarity, this chart reflects the 'persons or bodies having jurisdiction' over each section of the Manual."

PREFACE UNIVERSITY IDENTITY

Pref	Name and Status	President/Office of the General Counsel
Pref	Motto	President/Office of the General Counsel
Pref	Seal	President/Office of the General Counsel
Pref	Colors	President/Office of the General Counsel
Pref	Mascot	President/Office of the General Counsel
Pref	Mace	President/Office of the General Counsel
Pref	Registered Marks	President/Office of the General Counsel

000 UNIVERSITY MANUAL

010	Description	Provost/Office of the General Counsel
020	Adoption and Revision	Provost/Office of the General Counsel
030	Conformance	Provost/Office of the General Counsel
030.1	Applicable Law	Provost/Office of the General Counsel
030.2	Rule of Precedence	Provost/Office of the General Counsel

100 UNIVERSITY COMMUNITY

101	Vision, Mission, and Strategic Goals	President
102	Our Common Ground	President
103	Academic Freedom	President/Provost/Faculty Senate
104	Equal Employment Opportunity and Affirmative Action	Chief Human Resources Officer
105	Equal Opportunity in Educational Programs and Activities	Chief Human Resources Officer
106	Conflict of Interest and Conflict of Commitment Policy	President

200 UNIVERSITY ORGANIZATION, GOVERNANCE, ADVISORY BODIES, AND STRUCTURE

201	Organization	President/Provost
202 - 206	Governance	Office of the General Counsel
202	Board of Trustees	Office of the General Counsel
202.1	Authority of the Board of Trustees	Office of the General Counsel
202.2	Composition of the Board of Trustees	Office of the General Counsel
203	Appointment of University Officers	Office of the General Counsel
203.1	President	Office of the General Counsel
203.1.1	Appointment and Accountability	Office of the General Counsel
203.1.2	Authority and Responsibilities	Office of the General Counsel
203.1.3	Search Committee for the President	Office of the General Counsel
203.2	Provost	President/Office of the General Counsel
203.2.1	Appointment and Accountability	President/Office of the General Counsel
203.2.2	Authority and Responsibilities	President/Office of the General Counsel
203.2.3	Search Committee for the Provost	President/Office of the General Counsel
204	Senior Administrators and Academic Leaders	President/Provost
204.1	Appointment	President/Provost
204.2	Evaluation	President/Provost
204.3	Appointment Termination	President/Provost
204.3.1	Resignation	President/Provost
204.3.2	Notice of Non-Reappointment	President/Provost
204.3.3	Termination of Appointment with Notice	President/Provost
204.3.4	Termination for Cause	President/Provost
204.4	Assumption or Resumption of Faculty Appointment	President/Provost

205	Faculty Senate		Provost/VP for Academic Affairs and Student Success
	205.1	Faculty Senate Constitution and Bylaws	Provost/VP for Academic Affairs and Student Success
	205.2	Conformance with State Law	Provost/VP for Academic Affairs and Student Success
206	University Faculty		Provost/VP for Faculty Affairs
	206.1	Faculty Appointments	Provost/VP for Faculty Affairs
	206.2	Authority of the Faculty	Provost/VP for Faculty Affairs
	206.3	Faculty Research	Provost/Vice President for Research
	206.3.1	Sponsored Research	Provost/Vice President for Research
	206.3.2	Research Policies and Procedures	Provost/Vice President for Research
207	Advisory Bodies		Provost/President
	207.1	Student Government Association	Provost/Vice Provost for Student Affairs
	207.1.1	Description	Provost/Vice Provost for Student Affairs
	207.1.2	Student Government Association Constitution and Bylaws	Provost/Vice Provost for Student Affairs
	207.2	Graduate Student Senate	Provost/Graduate College Dean
	207.2.1	Description	Provost/Graduate College Dean
	207.2.2	Constitution and Bylaws	Provost/Graduate College Dean
	207.3	Staff Council	President/Pres Chief of Staff/CHRO
	207.3.1	Description	President/Pres Chief of Staff/CHRO
	207.3.2	Staff Council Constitution and Bylaws	President/Pres Chief of Staff/CHRO
	207.3.3	Consistency with State Law	President/Pres Chief of Staff/CHRO
208	Academic Unit Structure		President/Provost
	208.1	Establishment, Elimination, or Reorganization of Academic Units	President/Provost
	208.2	Categories of Recognized Academic Units	President/Provost
	208.3	Colleges, Schools, and Departments	President/Provost
	208.3.1	College	President/Provost
	208.3.2	School	President/Provost
	208.3.3	Department	President/Provost
	208.4	Academic Programs	President/Provost
	208.5	Academic Centers and Institutes	President/Provost
	208.6	Vermont Agricultural Experiment Station	President/Provost
	208.6.1	Description	President/Provost
	208.6.2	Director	President/Provost
	208.7	UVM Extension	President/Provost
	208.7.1	Description	President/Provost
	208.7.2	Director	President/Provost
	208.8	Graduate College	President/Provost
	208.8.1	Description	President/Provost
	208.8.2	Dean	President/Provost
	208.9	Larner College of Medicine	President/Provost
	208.9.1	Description	President/Provost
	208.9.2	Dean	President/Provost
	208.10	Professional and Continuing Education	President/Provost
	208.10.1	Description	President/Provost
	208.10.2	Chief Officer	President/Provost
	208.11	Department of Military Studies	President/Provost
	208.11.1	Description	President/Provost
	208.11.2	Professor of Military Studies	President/Provost
	208.12	University Libraries	President/Provost
	208.12.1	Description	President/Provost
	208.12.2	Dean	President/Provost
	208.13	Robert Hull Fleming Museum	President/Provost
	208.13.1	Description	President/Provost
	208.13.2	Director	President/Provost

301	Deans		President/Provost
	301.1	Recruitment	President/Provost
	301.2	Appointment	President/Provost
	301.3	Authority and Responsibilities	President/Provost
	301.4	Performance Review	Provost/President
		301.4.1	Annual Review
		301.4.2	Third-Year Review
		301.4.3	Periodic Comprehensive Review
	301.5	Appointment Termination	Provost/President
302	College and School Faculties		Provost /Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs
	302.1	Membership	Provost /Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs
	302.2	Self-Governance	Provost /Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs
	302.3	Functions of a College or School Faculty	Provost /Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs
	302.4	Methods of Faculty Work	Provost /Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs
303	Departments		Provost/Deans
	303.1	Chairpersons	Provost/Deans
		303.1.1	Description and Responsibilities
		303.1.2	Recruitment
		303.1.3	Initial Appointment
		303.1.4	Reappointment
		303.1.5	Responsibilities of the Chairperson
		303.1.6	Performance Review
		303.1.7	Appointment Termination
	303.2	Department Governance and Functions	Provost/Deans
		303.2.1	Self-Governance
		303.2.2	Functions of a Department
304	Academic Programs at the College-level, Department-level, in Freestanding Schools, and Schools within Colleges		Provost/Deans
	304.1	Academic Program Directors	Provost/Deans
		304.1.1	Description and Responsibilities
		304.1.2	Recruitment
		304.1.3	Initial Appointment
		304.1.4	Reappointment
		304.1.5	Responsibilities of the Academic Program Director
		304.1.6	Performance Review
		304.1.7	Appointment Termination
		304.1.8	Faculty Appointment
	304.2	Academic Program Governance	Provost/Deans
		304.2.1	Self-Governance
		304.2.2	Functions of an Academic Program
305	Schools Within Colleges		Provost/Deans
	305.1	School Directors	Provost/Deans
		305.1.1	Description and Responsibilities
		305.1.2	Recruitment
		305.1.3	Initial Appointment
		305.1.4	Reappointment
		305.1.5	Responsibilities of the School Director
		305.1.6	Performance Review
		305.1.7	Appointment Termination
	305.2	School Within a College Governance and Functions	Provost/Deans
		305.2.1	Self-Governance
		305.2.2	Functions of a School Within a College
306	Colleges and Freestanding Schools		Provost/Deans
	306.1	Associate Deans	Provost/Deans
		306.1.1	Description and Responsibilities
		306.1.2	Recruitment

	306.1.3	Initial Appointment	Provost/Deans
	306.1.4	Reappointment	Provost/Deans
	306.1.5	Responsibilities of the Associate Dean	Provost/Deans
	306.1.6	Performance Review	Provost/Deans
	306.1.7	Appointment Termination	Provost/Deans
307	Office of the Provost		Provost
	307.1	Academic Vice Provosts	Provost
	307.1.1	Description and Responsibilities	Provost
	307.1.2	Recruitment	Provost
	307.1.3	Initial Appointment	Provost
	307.1.4	Reappointment	Provost
	307.1.5	Responsibilities of the Academic Vice Provost	Provost
	307.1.6	Performance Review	Provost
	307.1.7	Appointment Termination	Provost
308	University-wide Academic Centers and Institutes		Provost/Vice President for Research
	308.1	Academic Center and Institute Directors	Provost/Vice President for Research
	308.1.1	Description and Responsibilities	Provost/Vice President for Research
	308.1.2	Recruitment	Provost/Vice President for Research
	308.1.3	Initial Appointment	Provost/Vice President for Research
	308.1.4	Reappointment	Provost/Vice President for Research
	308.1.5	Responsibilities of the Academic Center or Institute Director	Provost/Vice President for Research
	308.1.6	Performance Review	Provost/Vice President for Research
	308.1.7	Appointment Termination	Provost/Vice President for Research
	308.2	Academic Center and Institute Governance and Functions	Provost/Vice President for Research
	308.2.1	Self-Governance	Provost/Vice President for Research
	308.2.2	Functions of an Academic Center or Institute	Provost/Vice President for Research