

THE IMPORTANCE OF ELEANOR ROOSEVELT TO THE UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS: CRITICAL REFLECTIONS

Women's International League for Peace & Freedom &
the Center for Cultural Pluralism Present:

DR. BLANCHE WIESEN COOK

Historian and Professor of History at the John Jay College of Criminal Justice

Author of a 3-volume Biography about Eleanor Roosevelt

This program is being supported & partially funded by the American Civil Liberties Union of VT, Amnesty International Champlain Valley, Anne Slade Frey Charitable Trust, Ben & Jerry's Community Action Team, Green Mountain Fund of the Vermont Community Foundation, Price Chopper's Golub Foundation, WILPF US, The Vermont Humanities Council, Gender, Sexuality & Women's Studies at UVM, Bernard & Sandra Otterman Foundation, UVM College of Engineering & Mathematical Sciences, UVM College of Education & Social Services, UVM Honors College, UVM Larner College of Medicine, & UVM Graduate College.

OCTOBER 11, 2019
7:00-9:00 PM

Cake Reception &
Books Raffle
8:30-9:00 PM

Billings-Ira Allen
Lecture Hall 101
26 University Place

For more information: www.uvm.edu/ccp
For ADA accommodations: (802) 656-7753 or access@uvm.edu

THIS EVENT IS FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC