The proceeds allow the Mortar Board Honor Society of UVM to continue their volunteer work and support various community charities. Help support them in their efforts to make a difference at the University of Vermont and in the Burlington community!

Mortar Board is a national honor society that recognizes seniors for their achievement in scholarship, leadership and service. The University of Vermont’s 2009 Akraia Chapter has been active in the UVM and Burlington community through various community service projects and events:

- Cooking dinner for the Burlington Ronald McDonald House every Sunday
- Promoting literacy through First Book (online book drive) and an afterschool reading program
- Helping the Vermont Refugee Resettlement Program by being mentors and assisting the organization
- Various fundraisers (i.e. carwash for the Vermont Respite House)
- Involvement with Spectrum, a nonprofit organization providing housing and support services for homeless, foster, and at risk youth
